NEXT WEEK'S HOROSCOPE

By Clare R.-Pollan

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, AUGUST 2, 1976
If your birthday occurs this week . . .
you are a sweet, tractable person, highly amenable to sympathy and affection. You are also creative, temperamental, original, independent and stubborn.

Aries Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 Pluto ♇

Someone you meet this week may change the course of your life. Your finances are stressed, and you may be tempted to excess spending. Watch this! Romance is tempting, tantalizing, and perhaps tempestuous. Do not start a quarrel with friends. Travel is favored.

Taurus Apr. 20 - May 20 Venus ♀

Do not let anyone make you unhappy. You have a lot to be thankful for. You could be the object of some rather vindictive behavior from someone utterly undisciplined. If you're nervous, get away from it all. Consider a change of scene. Study travel folders.

Gemini May 21 - June 20 Mercury ☿

In romance, you might try a switch that just will not work. If you are disturbed about the recent action of a loved one, you must get this settled. Certain people are not interested in your personal problems. Someone puts in a good word for you. Sociability favored.

Cancer June 21 - July 22 Moon ☾

One who loves you may prove it beyond a doubt, even though you may have serious reservations about this person's good intentions. A fresh start gives you the proverbial new lease. A long-distance message proves you have not been forgotten. Be more optimistic.

Leo July 23 - Aug. 22 Sun ☉

Your lunar cycle is high this week. Trust your judgment and intuition. Your timing improves and so does your appearance. A family member makes amends for recent slights. Be a gracious winner! Distractions may bother you. Seek quietness and privacy.

Virgo Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 Mercury ☿

The time is right to follow a hunch about finances. Your powers of persuasion are good now. You enjoy the confidence of others and can make some good investments. Secret deals, on the side, aren't going to be a success, however. Dispose of surplus possessions.

Libra Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 Venus ♀

A warm, rosy glow prevails now due to your partner's praise and the heartwarming interest displayed by your associates. Set out to enjoy life. Evenings are excellent for getting together. Take advantage of the happy atmosphere which surrounds you.

Scorpio Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 Mars ♂

This may not be a very good time for you unfortunately, but make the most of it. You may have to put up with a smart aleck who will irritate you. A romantic companion may have a strong will and wish to follow its dictates. Keep clear of strife and friction.

Sagittarius Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 Jupiter ♃

Bright aspects accent your excellent taste now for buying up to the minute fashions and attractive household articles. Good luck comes through a good natured companion. Wanderlust stirs your soul and you're eager to be off for distant places.

Capricorn Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 Saturn ♄

Make quality the gauge of everything you do this week. Do not turn out any shoddy, half-baked work. In buying consider quality first. It's best to do business with well-established firms. Remember past mistakes and don't repeat them. Your money luck changes favorably.

Aquarius Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 Uranus ♅

Timing is in your favor now. You could win money and a secret wish could begin to come true. Follow through on a hunch. Your intuition rings true. Diet and health resolutions are brought to your attention. Neighbors and relatives figure prominently in your scene.

Pisces Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 Neptune ♆

The accent is on what your goals are, how you get along with those who pull strings, and how adjustments in the home and business areas are essential. If making the purchase of a luxury item, consult a family member about the expenditure. Be thrifty, conservative.

CALORIE COUNTDOWN

BY SUSAN DUFF MASTRO

FALSE FOOD FACTS

Doctors and nutritionists often say that more malnutrition in America is due to ignorance than to economics. And malnutrition is a subject that certainly is not irrelevant to dieters. Many people who are desperate to lose weight think only in terms of calories and forget about the other food values. Dieting is also a subject that somehow lends itself to lots of misconceptions, false notions which dieters may use to rationalize their poor eating habits. Following are some untrue, but commonly believed, concepts:

1. Obesity is due entirely to heredity. Our body shapes in general are likely to be similar to those of our parents, but obesity is more complicated than a simple inherited trait. If one or more of your parents or grandparents is very fat, you might rationalize that this explains your overweight and there isn't much you can do about it. That's poor thinking for serious dieters. There certainly is something you can do about it, and research shows that the poor eating habits you inherit from your parents can be more significant in your difficulty to lose weight.

2. "Diet pills" will take off pounds no matter how much you eat. Although amphetamines and their synthetic derivatives at times cut the appetite and can be short-term effective in dieting efforts, they do not magically reduce you without your cutting down on calories and total food intake. No matter what sort of medication you take, you'll have to eat sensibly to take off pounds.

3. Meal-skipping is a good way to lose weight. No matter how often this has been proven untrue, many dieters still cling tenaciously to the idea that if you miss meals it will help you lose weight. Current studies actually demonstrate that it is more effective in weight reduction plans to spread your food intake out and eat more than three meals a day, as many as six smaller meals, in order to keep your hunger down and provide your body with food as it requires it.

4. Water intake should be greatly reduced when one is on a diet. Although many dieters worry about water retention when they are weighing themselves daily, it is not true that consuming less water will help you lose weigl

CRISWELL PREDICTS

UNCENSORED: I predict that Castro of Cuba will again visit the Kremlin and will be given the highest award to date. Castro will be the only living Communist who will have his statue in the Honor Court . . . I predict a strike of gravediggers in New York City which will result in the storage of bodies for months to come awaiting burial. This will result in much bitterness and will advance the cremation service. This edict will hold in spite of any religious objection, and will result in more personal grief than any other strike in the history of our nation . . . I predict that the Shinto Faith of Japan will become very popular with college students. . . I predict that all phony titles will be revoked by the Polish government in exile, joining with France, Spain, England and Italy. These titles sold for about $100 and were used in our social whirl, but these days are now at an end.

PARIS WILL TURN BACK THE FASHION CLOCK to the year 1907 for her next inspiration. The more things change, the more they are the same, and the bride of today will look like the grandmother of yesterday . . . I predict a worldwide funeral service will be broadcast and telecast when one of India's leaders dies . . . I predict that the antique market will boom and replace the present rummage sales with actual antiques that have a bona fide history.

ARIZONA'S FUTURE: I predict that Arizona will utilize state and federal land to set up model communities for the increasing number of retired persons in the United States. Virtually the whole state will be irrigated by 1981. There will be only one problem arising from this and it will be the rules issued by squatters who will move on these lands after they are irrigated and developed, and then will refuse to move off. This will be one of the big stories of 1981! . . . I predict that the Reincarnation Society will establish chapters in each area where their members will band together, not only to enjoy their past lives, but also their present life under a new personality and name. This will extend in the future and the Society will be self-perpetuating.

THE GOSSIP MILL will be working overtime when the present Prince of Wales, King Charles III, elopes with a commoner from Italy. He will become King Charles III before 1978 becomes history. The House of Lords and the House of Commons will jointly deplore this marriage . . . I predict new hauntings in the White House during a state function which will make the front pages.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions – horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

LAUGH OUT

A father took his young daughter to the movies. He occupied a seat near the middle while the young lady went down in the front row to join some other children. The news reel was showing a raging forest fire, which evidently frightened the little girl and she came back to take a seat beside her father.

"Did the fire frighten you?" asked the father.

"No!" she replied. The smoke got in my eyes."
