Eye injuries preventable

"Did you risk your child's eyesight today?" This question was raised by Elinor Zoller, executive director of the Kentucky Society for the Prevention of Blindness in announcing a new publication, "Play It Safe! — Your Child's Eyes Are at Stake."

According to Ms. Zoller, many parents gamble with their children's vision because they are unaware of the facts about eye safety.

The Kentucky Society's colorfully illustrated pamphlet tells parents how to protect their youngsters from needless injury and eye damage.
