

Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

The recipes this week have been published before and we have numerous requests for these and others; I thought it is good to give you these recipes so they are appropriate for this season.

With fresh strawberries now in the market is the recipe for English Strawberry Shortbread.

SHORTBREAD
2 cups all purpose flour
1 tablespoon powdered sugar (heaping)
1/2 teaspoon coriander
1/2 teaspoon margarine
Sift dry ingredients into bowl and work in the butter with your fingers until it is like coarse cornmeal. Smooth out on a greased baking sheet until about 1/4 inch thick. Straighten edges by gently grasping with a spatula, smoothing top with open hand. Prick all over with fork. Bake at 250 degrees for 27-30 minutes.

Cut into squares while still hot. Allow to cool before removing from baking sheet with spatula.

While shortbread cooks, wash and hull strawberries and dry on absorbent paper. Always wash berries first then dry. This helps to keep them from getting waterlogged. When berries are dry put into crystal bowl and sprinkle with sugar to taste.

When ready to serve place shortbread squares in bottom of serving dish (will need a deep one). Cover with berries, another square of shortbread and more strawberries. Serve with thick cream and to make it pretty, top with a spoon of whipped cream and a perfect strawberry. This shortbread will be crisp to the last bite.

This shortbread may be used with other fruit.

BROILED BASS

4 pounds of bass
2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/4 cup butter

Use whole dressed fish or filets. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place on greased foil or broiler pan, skin side up. Brush with butter or with half butter and half lemon juice. Place 2 to 3 inches from heat and broil 7 to 10 minutes or until lightly browned. Brush with butter and turn carefully. Baste again and broil 7 to 10 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork. Four pounds of bass should serve about eight. However, I prefer to count serving pieces and number of persons to be served.

This is good any season, any occasion.
