Class trips planned at elementary school

As the end of another school year gets closer and the weather gets prettier, students thoughts turn to the many things they could be doing rather than their studies in the classroom. The teachers at Nicholas County Elementary School, with this thought in mind, have completed plans for their various classes to take a school trip and give the students a little more education in a different way. The following are trips that have been planned.

The only class trip planned at Nicholas County High School is the Senior Class trip to Kings Island Friday evening.

The 126 students in Phase C (third grade) have completed a unit study on animals and as a follow up, their teachers plan to take them to the Frankfort Wildlife Reserve in Frankfort on Thursday, May 27. Teachers are Mrs. Dorothy Workman, Mrs. Dorothy Sundry, Miss Nola Badgett, Mrs. Sue Denton and Mrs. Frank Woods. The 114 fourth grade students are to go to Blue Licks also. They will go on Wednesday, May 26 and will be accompanied by their teachers, Miss Edna Huddleston, Mrs. Jackie Clark, Mrs. Danny Tackett and Mrs. David McMillen.

Mrs. J.S. Wilson, Mrs. J.B. Griffith, Mrs. Terry Ritchie and Mrs. Kathleen Martin plan to take their 120 sixth grade students to Boonesboro State Park on Thursday, May 20. The fifth grade class plans to go to Boonesboro also on Friday, May 21. The class of 158 students will be accompanied by the following teachers, aids and parents: Mrs. Roby Laughlin, Mrs. M.C. Blair, Mrs. Betty Gilliam, Mrs. Doris Payne, Mrs. John Ritchie, Mrs. Debbie Tackett, Mrs. David Tipton, Miss Chris Wendelin, Mrs. James Reid, Miss Maria Meredith, Mrs. Linda Huffler, Mrs. Jane Waldman, Mrs. Vivian Richardson, Mrs. Faye Ring, Mrs. Phyllis Mitchell and Mrs. Don Hughes.
