Dear Debbie

Letters to DEBORAH WHITE

DEAR DEBBIE:

My daughter-in-law invited me to spend Mother's Day with them. They live a good hour's drive away. When I got there she and my son went out to dinner with friends and left me behind to babysit for my 3-year-old grandson. They returned after midnight and didn't even ask me to spend the night, so I drove home alone at that hour. I am widowed and usually welcome the opportunity to sit with my grandson, but NOT on Mother's Day and NOT when I was invited on the pretext of spending the day with them. My daughter-in-law is very domineering. I didn't say anything because in the past things like this have caused a rift and I don't want to be deprived of seeing my grandson. How can I let this girl know how much she hurt me?

GRANDMA

DEAR GRANDMA:

You're making undue allowances for your son. Where was he when this colossal insult was taking place? He is just as responsible as your daughter-in-law. Let him know how rude their behavior was, and speak up if it happens again. If this causes a rift, let it. You're better off being an absentee grandma than a patsy.

DEAR DEBBIE:

A new girl came to class so my best friend and I became friends with her and I thought that was fine. Now the new girl took away my best friend and they dropped me like a hot potato. I try to be around them as much as possible, but they mostly ignore me. I also tried to make new friends but it didn't work out.

SAD

DEAR SAD:

At your age it's common for allegiances to shift rapidly. You say you are trying to make new friends, but you're still expending energy hanging around the old friends who ignore you. My advice is to, start ignoring them, and pronto. Once you devote yourself to completely making new friends, you'll begin to develop many warm, close relationships. Start now!

DEAR DEBBIE:

I have gotten myself in trouble. I was going with this boy for two years. When I told him about the baby he denied it was his. I KNOW it's his because he's the only one I have ever been with. I am 17 and still in high school. He is 19. Now I don't know what to do. I don't have money and if I tell my parents they will skin me alive. It hurts me bitterly that my boyfriend deserted me and won't accept responsibility. I'm in my third month and am afraid to have this baby alone. Please help me, which he will not. What can I do?

SORRY

DEAR SORRY:

Don't be so quick to write off your parents. Instead of "skinning you alive" they will probably give you all the help and understanding you need right now. If they don't, talk to them with your doctor. If he can't help you arrive at a decision, you can live with, ask him to refer you to someone who can.

LAFFS

"I learned something about writing. Poetic license doesn't include walls."

Feelin' Good

If you feel like experimenting with food, don't experiment with rhubarb leaves. They're actually poisonous — if you eat them even though the stalks are good in pies.

LAUGH OUT

In one of the towns of the Pacific coast a distinct earthquake shock was felt and when the municipal building rocked perceptibly, the city fathers left without bothering about formalities.

The clerk, a man of rules and regulations, was hard put to it to give his minutes the proper official tone. Finally he evolved this masterpiece:

"On motion of the city hall, council adjourned."

★★ NEXT WEEK'S ★★ HOROSCOPE

By Clay R. Pollan

FOR WEEK BEGINNING MONDAY, JUNE 7, 1976

If your birthday occurs this week, your intellectual quickness makes you a forceful, magnetic, versatile person. You are sensitive to the impressions you receive. Be careful of associations.

Aries | Mar. 21 - Apr. 19 | Pluto ♇

Once you have made a commitment, stick to it. You come out better than had been expected on a special money deal. You are now able to rid yourself of an unnecessary burden. New challenges and contacts are on the agenda. Do whatever is needed to improve health.

Taurus | Apr. 20 - May 20 | Venus ♀

You have a good chance to expand social circle this week. Accept invitations that will allow you to meet people you can esteem. Be self reliant and more than a little impersonal with others. Entertain people you work with. Try exotic dishes with a good wine.

Gemini | May 21 - June 20 | Mercury ☿

This weeks trends may turn the tide of your life. Unexpected news may come and a strange person may enter your circle. Seek ways to improve your home environment by adding better lighting and compatible colors. Unfounded rumors abound. Consider the source.

Cancer | June 21 - July 22 | Moon ☾

Sit down and concentrate if a member of the opposite sex wants to talk about a sensitive matter. Keep cool and do not talk out of turn. Plan a trip. Study travel folders and estimate expenses. If offered an attractive proposition, don't hesitate to accept it.

Leo | July 23 - Aug. 22 | Sun ☉

Things in general seem to get better now. The results of recent letter writing will send your outlook upward. Proper timing is key. A chance may come to end bothersome predicament. Gain space. Discard unneeded things. Don't be talkative about secret hopes. Plan wisely.

Virgo | Aug. 23 - Sept. 22 | Mercury ☿

You tend to worry too much about past unpleasantness and the past go for good. Don't allow yourself to be hampered-by nostalgic longings. Be more realistic. See people and situations as they actually exist, not as you wish they could be. You gain in material things.

Libra | Sept. 23 - Oct. 22 | Venus ♀

You can bring about a major change for improvement by taking on new responsibilities, avoiding complaints, being happy and pleasant. Reach new agreements or bring more harmony into a partnership. Travel is favored. Revisit an old haunt that you've had in mind.

Scorpio | Oct. 23 - Nov. 21 | Mars ♂

The lunation accents some possible difficulties ahead this week. There may be some disagreements or conflicts caused by financial problems, but nothing lasting is indicated. Pressure will lighten and you should find yourself able to get more things done.

Sagittarius | Nov. 22 - Dec. 21 | Jupiter ♃

Aspects suggest the successful end to a business venture during the week. Your material security will be an important factor. This is a good time for major decisions and for signing contracts. Hidden talent and ability should surface at this time. Accent is on development.

Capricorn | Dec. 22 - Jan. 19 | Saturn ♄

Moon signs give your self-expression a very dynamic and energetic quality. Whatever you do at this time will be done with intensity. Constructive aspects will bring opportunity to improve home. Small changes in surroundings could have beneficial effect on you.

Aquarius | Jan. 20 - Feb. 18 | Uranus ♅

Aspects put the spotlight on you and your activities. The period would bring the conclusion of an important matter for you. This is the time to clear the air of unspoken tensions and for telling others how you feel. New people who enter the scene at this time will be valuable to you.

Pisces | Feb. 19 - Mar. 20 | Neptune ♆

This is a week of rich opportunity and you should take full advantage of it. Your feelings now become more positive, relationships become easier to handle. Sociability is accented. Attend doings and try to be seen where influential people gather. People admire you.
