RECORD CROWD

Nicholas County holds for 7-0 win over Paris

by Kay Conley
Nicholas County beat Paris, for the first time ever, 7-0 Friday night before a record estimated 1,900 fans at the local high school football field. The victory puts the Bluejackets in first place with Harland in Class A district play. These two number one teams will fight it out here on Oct. 22 in an all important conference game. This was the first time any Nicholas County Bluejacket team ever defeated Paris in football. It has been 17 years since the Carlisle High School Musketeers beat the Greyhounds in 1959. The same year many of the seniors on this year's team were born. Nicholas County's Coach Tom Pumphrey was the Paris coach that year. His first year there. The only scoring took place in the second quarter, when Nicholas County's right back, Clifford Thompson, sprinted the ball 45 yards around the right end for a touchdown. A flag on the extra point attempt, set Paris back one yard for outside Timmy Wilson's kick for the extra point was good, leaving the score 7-0 at the end of the second quarter. The Jackets threatened to score earlier in the second quarter, moving the ball well the length of the field but fumbled it to Paris on the Greyhound two yard line.

Once again Nicholas County's defense was outstanding, as the Greyhounds never seriously threatened during the game, and were minus two yards rushing in the first half. Paris was held to a total of 52 yards during the game. Nicholas County earned 203 yards.

Offensively, Clifford Thompson carried the ball 17 times for 120 yards, followed by Damon Booth carrying the ball 10 times for 44 yards, Greg Leicher carrying the ball 18 times for 46 yards, and Mark Ruddle carrying the ball four times for 11 yards. Cliff Shumate led the Bluejacket defense with seven tackles and one recovered fumble. Mark Mattox with five tackles, R.T. Massey with four, and Damon Booth and Timmy Oelsmann both had three. Clifford Thompson had two tackles and an intercepted pass.

The jackets tried two passes and both were incomplete. Damon Booth punted twice for 36 yards per kick average. This victory against Paris was not our last goal. It is our first step. Coach Pumphrey commented Monday.

Nicholas County takes Lewis County here Friday night at 8 p.m.

County Magistrates develop giving judge sole authority

The Nicholas County Magistrates went on record at their regular meeting last week expressing "strong opposition" to the County Judges Association recommendation of "the state legislature that county judges be given the sole authority to hire and fire county employees instead of the fiscal courts. Each magistrate signed the letters which County Attorney Joseph H. Conley had prepared at their request, and sent to Rep. Adrian Arnold and Sen.

Tom Ward. A copy was mailed to Joe Schwalback, president, Kentucky Magistrates and Commissioners Association. Masullo Tedder, Community Action leader, was granted a garden plot of approximately one-half acre at the county farm for a community garden to benefit the elderly and underprivileged. To meet Oct. 19.

The next Fiscal Court meeting was changed to 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 19.

Four ordinances past by City

City Council passed four ordinances at its regular meeting Monday night. They are:
—To rezone Clay Hunt's property at East Union Road and East Main St. from residential to commercial.
—Passed a revised and updated zoning ordinance.
—Passed compulsory trash usage.
—Raised parking meter violations. A check for $7.50 was accepted from the state for city street resurfacing which has been done.
Russell Bell, local civil defense director, announced that the emergency generator is operational in the Fire Department.

Jewell K. Vico's request for a water table on his property across from the County Fire Department was tabled until Spring.
Fire Chief Bob Barnett announced that Fire School has been completed. He also requested salary and insurance benefit increases for city firemen. The request was tabled until the next regular meeting.

$700 defender fund for county

Nicholas County will be receiving funds totaling $700 for public defender programs. Other counties in the 18th judicial district will be receiving funds totaling $1075. They are Robertson county, $125, Pendleton county, $625, and Harrison county, $1125.
Jack Farley, chief public defender, said the monies are allocated on a quarterly basis, and October marks the beginning of the second quarter. Kentucky's public defender program was established by the 1972 General Assembly and is based on a per capita and usage basis through local fiscal courts.

In its third year of operation last year, the public defender's office handled approximately 17,000 cases for indigent persons.
NO SCHOOL MONDAY
There will be no school in Nicholas County Monday, Oct. 18. It will be an in-service day for teachers.

School Board holds meeting

by Jimmy Smith

Counties must donate 100 units of Blood Oct. 21

At least 100 units of blood must be donated here on Oct. 21 in order for Nicholas counties to be covered for their blood needs by the Central Kentucky Blood Center. Nicholas counties used 340 pints of blood last year and only supplied 97 pints. The bloodmobile will be at the First Baptist Church in Carlisle on Thursday, Oct. 21, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. Nicholas county residents use about three times as much blood as they are willing to donate, according to Rev. H. Dallas Sugg, local Blood Bank Program chairman.

"It is entirely possible, and don't let anyone tell you, that our hospital will be without blood from the Central Kentucky Blood Center. It is also entirely possible that any Nicholas counties requiring blood anywhere in Lexington, or in Kentucky, or in the United States could also be refused blood because of the lack of interest that the county as a whole has shown in the blood bank program," he stated.

According to Mrs. Carolyn Frisbush of the Central Kentucky Blood Center, Nicholas county will be excused from their quota for the rest of 1976 if the 100 units are donated on Oct. 21. However, beginning in 1977, the quota will have to be met locally. Being excused means that CKBC will make available the needed blood for Nicholas county residents for the rest of the year. If 100 units are donated next Thursday.

Rev. Sugg stated that more than 40 requests for at least five donors per church or organization have been issued. At the date of this writing, only two churches and one civic organization have responded, making 13 persons who will come to donate blood. Pastors of the churches, presidents of civic organizations, and chairpersons of various organizations have been asked to be responsible for seeing that five prospective donors are available. "We must have 100 units of blood on Oct. 21. Because of the fact that some will not be able to give who will volunteer to give, we need a larger number of prospective donors," he commented.

This is an urgent matter for local residents. Call Rev. H. Dallas Sugg at 238-2293 or 283-5658 and give him a time that you can come between 2 p.m. and 7 p.m. on Oct. 21.

It might be well to consider the possibility that land values will decrease as a direct result of losing the hospital in Nicholas county, and thus, losing doctors.

Most of the people who are against the hospital bond issue are property owners who are understandably against tax increases. Nobody likes taxes, and the property owner is the one who gets the brunt of the tax burden. However, if this bond issue fails our hospital will very shortly be forced to close its doors. Should this happen, you can almost be assured that no doctors will be willing to come to the county to practice. Without doctors, other people will not want to live here. And, land values will fall as a result of this. This is the eighth in a series of articles regarding the hospital bond issue to be decided by voters Nov. 2. In order to pass, two-thirds of those voting in the election at all must vote "yes." If you vote, but fail to vote on the hospital issue, it is the same as voting "no."

Advantages that other similar counties do not have. Oh, one may have a country club, but not place to fish. Another may have the Lake Carmine facilities, but no library. Still another may have a renovated downtown area, but no access to metropolitan areas. This county has all of these and more—churches, schools and health facilities close by, regional 4-H camp, recreation park, etc., etc.—all within the bounds of the rural living on many people desire today.

But, if we'd lose any one of these, especially a hospital, the area would become less attractive.

Doctors are not available everywhere. We are lucky enough to have three in our community. We would do well to make sure that we always are able to attract doctors here by keeping a hospital here.

Henryville has first priority

The Henryville Project was the unanimous number one priority recommended to be submitted for HUD funds by those who attended the first two community meetings on Wednesday, Oct. 6.

The city and county will submit the pre-application together after the next meeting to be held Wednesday, Oct. 12. Steve Burris and Ed Holmes of Blue Grass Area Development District are helping local officials make the application before Oct. 15.

The Henryville Project was the number one priority on last year's pre-application which was turned down by HUD.

Edwina E. Johnson, former of the September term of Circuit Court reported Friday that the Grand Jury has been in session two days and has returned seven indictments. The Jury failed to return three indictments. The Jury commended the Jailer, Mrs. Albert Booth, on the cleanliness of the jail facility considering its age and condition. The Fiscal Court was commended for its renovation of the Courthouse.
