

Girls needed for softball Head Start programs weight control and exercise classes

The Nicholas County Head Start will open a weight control and exercise class Thursday night from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. at the Nicholas County Elementary School gym beginning April 14. There will be a fee of 25 cents per night.

These sessions are open to anyone in the community who would like to join them. Each session will include a weight-loss lecture and a 45-minute workout. Instructors are Mrs. Martha O. Outlaw, nutritionist from Nicholas County Health Center who will be the lecturer.

Anyone planning to attend should wear loose clothing and tennis shoes but the shoes must not be worn outside the gym.

Franchise taxes paid Jackets down Bourbon County 10-5 last week

The Nicholas County baseball team came home with a big victory last week after they handed a humiliating Bourbon County squad their first defeat in three games. Jacket coach, Bill Anderson attributed the success to the fact that his team displayed "some pretty good pitching and timely hitting."

The large iron bridge across Brantly Ford near the light plant was swung from its moorings and walked down the creek considerable distance. The Littlejohns Carnival, which was showing on Jackson's park, was a heavy loser. Every tent on the lot was blown down, some of them were washed away. One tent being reported blown at Miller Station, three miles away.
