

Local 4-Hers participate in Blue Grass Fair

Nicholas county was well represented at the Blue Grass Fair held recently in Lexington as over 40 local 4-H members participated in several areas of competition.

Tim Fooks, who sang a rendition of Stephen Foster songs was a finalist in the TV showman and performed in the "Folkies Wednesday night. The Gosses' Wats' Teen Club, under the direction of Ray H. DeHillig Bug, represented Nicholas county in the finals of the chibi-ants pageant. The group of about 14 performers sang songs from Rogers and Hammerstein.

In the lead show Andy Judge won first place in the 4-H weight division with his Hereford steer and Mark Sargison captured a red ribbon with his Maine Anjou from Heaven 11 farm.

Scott and Bradley Murrell, children of Mr. and Mrs. DeHillig Murrell, took their two registered Champion heifers to the Blue Grass Fair held recently in Lexington with the family chapering after her. Some people riding herback finally came along and seeing the prize made like cowboy and chased the heifer to where Murrell could get hold of the rope again. By the time the episode was over, it was too late to show either heifer.

Those who participated in the style revue are: Jo Ellen Capps, Tracy Capps, Barbara Payne, Sarah Hamm, Brenda Deppert, Jewel Shaw, Kim Simons and Vicki Russell.

Those who participated in the singing division are: Tracy Capps, Brenda Deppert, Margaret Ham, blue-green, Lisa Hinton, Yveta Vaughn, Mary Elizabeth Dale and Ellen Capps. All blue in stitching fan; John Gates, James won red in horse furnishings.

Two local women hospitalized Monday after separate accidents

Miss Betty Myrner of the Rose Hill area and Mrs. Julia Blake of the Morefield Road were admitted to the Nicholas County Hospital Monday for treatment of injuries they incurred in separate accidents, according to J.W. Eaton, Nicholas County Deputy Sheriff.

Miss Myrner suffered head lacerations when the pickup truck she was operating turned over after hitting the Rose Hill Road near the residence of Reynolds Madison about 10 p.m. Miss Myrner said, according to the accident report, she tried to miss an unidentified auto vehicle.

That pulled out in front of her. The pickup was a total loss.

Mrs. Blake who was a passenger in an auto operated by her mother, Mrs. Lorraine Frown, 10, suffered back injuries. Eaton reported that a vehicle operated by James Wade of Kennedy Heights hit Mrs. Frown's auto in the rear end and she was attempting to make a left turn from the Morefield Road into Mrs. Blake's driveway during a rain storm about 2:30 Monday afternoon. Both autos were total losses, the deputy sheriff stated.

Youth retreat

The Millersburg Youth Methodist Youth Retreat scheduled for Friday and Saturday, Aug. 12 and 13 has been postponed until a later date.

Red Cross shelters around Johnson

Six Red Cross disaster shelters have been set up in and around Johnson, Pa. to house the victims of the severe flash flood that struck the area when heavy rains caused small streams and tributaries of the Conemaugh River to overflow their banks.

Red Cross disaster teams and vehicles equipped with mobile communications and carrying food and emergency supplies from Pittsburgh, Harrisburg, Cleveland, Buffalo, Baltimore and the District of Columbia have been sent into the devastated area.

The Red Cross field center in Pittsburgh met an urgent request for blood platelets.

The American Red Cross is accepting contributions for the flood victims. Those desiring to contribute should make their checks out to the American Red Cross for Johnson area disaster victims and mail to the local American Red Cross chapter.

Marie Chapter to honor three

The officers and members of Marie Chapter 599 will honor three of its members Saturday, Aug. 13 at 7:45 p.m. at the Masonic Temple. Those being honored on this special occasion will be Howard Allison, Jr., District Deputy Grand Patron; Mary Trapp, Grand Representative of Georgia in Kentucky; and Clifford Dumas, Grand Representative of Montana in Kentucky.

After the special program honoring these members refreshments will be served in the dining room.

EKU students register Aug. 22-24

RICHMOND—Students enrolling at Eastern Kentucky University this fall will find that the summer has brought several changes in academics and in campus life.

The University expects about 14,000 students will enroll during fall registration, beginning at 1 p.m., Aug. 22. Dormitories open at 10 a.m., Sunday, Aug. 23.

That fall, 13,519 students entered EKU. Juniors and graduate students will register first, and freshmen and sophomores will begin registering at 1 p.m. Aug. 23 and continue the next day.

In addition to regular classes Eastern is offering some 20 evening courses for part-time study.
