

Nicholas county cheerleading teams attend camp at MSU

Nicholas County High School Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleading squads were among the more than 500 high school cheerleaders from 50 schools who visited Morehead State University Aug. 1-12 for a cheerleaders camp.

Sponsored by the Universal Cheerleaders Association, the camp was visiting MSU for the third consecutive year.

Participants from Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia worked on fundamentals, techniques and learned new cheers and routines during the week-long workshop.

The Varsity squad won two blue and two red ribbons during evaluations which were held each evening. The Junior Varsity squad earned one blue and three red ribbons.

Those who attended are: Charlotte Wagner, Rhonda Goodman, Janice Ortag, Deanna Darrell, Paula Foster and Carla Durlinger, all members of the Varsity squad; Cindy Clark, Dana Howard, Charlene Williams, Marsha Martin and Cathy Lamm, Junior Varsity. They were accompanied by their sponsor, Mrs. Dennis Hunt.

Layman's Day to be observed Sunday at Wesley Chapel

Layman's Day at Wesley Chapel C.M.E. Church will be observed Sunday, Aug. 21, at 9 p.m. The program is sponsored by the men's and ladies auxiliaries of the church with Mrs. Anna L. Thompson as chairperson and Greg O'Bannon assisting chairperson. The principal speaker will be R.G. Thomas, Mrs. Thomas, the former Myra Melrose, is a native of Paris, the younger daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J.W. Melrose, and recently retired from the field of music instruction on the college level.

She holds a bachelor of arts degree from Clark College, Atlanta, Ga., a bachelor of music degree from Oberlin, Ohio Conservatory of Music and a master of music degree from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio. She is doing doctoral preparation study at Boston University.

She began her teaching in the Bourbon County Schools. She served as associate professor of music at Kentucky State College, Bowling State University and Western-Southern State University.

While at Livingston College, Salisbury, N.C., she directed the school's 40-voice concert choir. The choir appeared here in 1969.

Her husband who is also in the teaching profession and a native Bourbon County, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Thomas. They are the parents of a son and are members of St. Paul Methodist Church.

Marion M. McCaffrey Jr., recently appointed pastor of the church by Bishop P.E. Marchant of the Kentucky Annual Conference invites the community to attend the service.

Miss Emmons to compete in State RECC pageant

FLEMINGSBURG—Miss Kelle Emmons, of Bethel, will leave Aug. 21, for Louisville where she will participate in the Kentucky RECC Beauty Pageant as Miss Fleming Mason RECC '77, Aug. 22.

Miss Emmons won the coveted title at the County RECC contest, held July 19, in competition with 14 other beautiful girls from the Fleming Mason area. She will be accompanied to Louisville by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Emmons.

While in Louisville, Miss Emmons will receive expert training in stage presence, general deportment, interviews with judges, discussion of plans and activities, personal consultation with the Pageant Director and enjoy get-togethers with other contestants.

The winner will begin a year-long rewarding experience including an expense trip to Washington, D.C., Eastern State University, and a $750 scholarship. Her runner-up will receive a $400 scholarship and serve as first alternate. The second runner-up will receive a $200 scholarship and serve as second alternate. There is also a special "Miss Cordiality" award.

Miss Emmons is 18 years old, black haired, blue eyed beauty. She is a member of the sophomore class at Eastern State University. While in high school she was selected as Miss Bath County High of 1976, was a member of the Beta Club and member of membership in "Who's Who Among American High School Students." Her hobbies are sewing, poetry and music.

Should Kelle be unable to go she will

State to build bridge over Hinkston

FRANKFORT—State Transportation Secretary Calvin G. Grayson has approved a new road improvement project for Nicholas county.

The project approval was announced as an amendment to the county road aid program for the fiscal year, which began July 1.

The project provides for construction of a bridge over Hinkston Creek on Route 14 at the Nicholas-Bourbon county line.

Grayson said that the work will be financed out of special funds reserved by the state for emergency improvements to roads and bridges eligible for support under Kentucky's County Road Aid Program.
