MSU to host Special Olympics June 2-4

MOREHEAD — Morehead State University will host the 1978 Kentucky Special Olympics. It has been announced. The games are scheduled June 24, 25 and 26.

Dr. Robert Monahan, assistant professor of psychology and special education at MSU, and Mike Mayhew, counselor in the MSU Center, have been named co-directors of the state games.

Dr. Monahan has been instrumental in the growth of Special Olympics in Eastern Kentucky.

More than 1,500 athletes are expected to compete in a variety of events including track and field, swimming, soccer, gymnastics, friable and wheelchair competition.

Special Olympics has become the world's largest sports program for mentally-retarded citizens. In Kentucky, more than 10,000 athletes are training for the opportunity to represent their communities in the state games at Morehead State.
