run-away that most Nicholas countians were expecting. It was over two minutes into the game before Steve Cartwright pushed in a basket for the Bluejackets and gave them the first lead of the night at 24. But the Cadets weren't going to roll over and give up so easily.

Insulate now with Insulspray foam insulation.

Reduce costly heat loss in your home.

In the average home, more heat escapes through the walls than from anywhere else. Now there's a way to effectively reduce costly heat loss. It's new technology—a foam insulation that's applied directly into the outside walls of your home. Quickly and without mess, your home becomes more comfortable to live in and much more economical to heat. It's been known for years. Now it's here. Save on rising fuel costs year-round with Insulspray foam insulation.

Three local students win DAR contest

Three Nicholas county students and one Bourbon County student are winners of an essay contest, "Battles of the American Revolution," sponsored by the Jimena Johnson Chapter of the DAR.

Fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth graders in area schools were eligible to enter the contest. The winner of the fifth grade division was Paige Haney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donna Haney of Carlisle. The title of her essay was "Battle of Blue Licks: The Last Battle of the American Revolution."

Margaret Ellen Haman was the winner of the sixth grade division. She is a past member of the Nicholas County 4-H Club and for the past three years has been a Little League cheerleader for the Cubs team.

Winner of the seventh grade level was Alan Connor Love, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lowe of Bourbon county. A student at Bourbon County Junior High School, the title of his essay was "Blue Licks: The Last Battle of the American Revolution."

Alan is a member of the year book staff at Bourbon Junior and was on the sixth grade honor roll for math and English and was also an overall-A student while in the sixth grade. He is a member of the Kentucky History Club.

Member of Junior Girl Scout Troop #16 and is also the fourth place winner at the county level of the Soil Conservation Essay Contest. She has earned recognition as the winner in her age category of the "Courier Journal Award of Excellence Program" in Nicholas county.

Winner of the eighth grade level was Jane Haman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Haman of Carlisle. Her essay was titled "The Battle of the Clouds."
