Stoney Creek Road home destroyed

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Mangelone on the Stoney Creek Road was completely destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon.

The couple, now staying with her mother, Mrs. Viola Brown, on Stoney Creek, were able to save most of their clothes and belongings other than things in the kitchen where the fire started.

The Nicholas County Fire Department answered the call, but by the time the firemen arrived at the fire the pump on the fire truck was from.

Fire Chief Woody Wilson said Tuesday that, if the truck answers a call of any distance in this sub-zero weather, the firemen are usually helpless because of the freezing problem. The house, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Glickson, was covered by some insurance.

Hunter to chair education board

by Jimmy Smith
