Musical afternoon set for July 3 in Bardstown

BARDSTOWN—Folks looking for a gratifying way to spend a portion of the long Fourth of July weekend should plan to visit this picturesque Central Kentucky town July 3 for a musical Sunday afternoon.

At 3 p.m. EDT under the rotunda located on the grounds of My Old Kentucky Home State Park, cast members of "The Stephen Foster Story" will present an hour-long concert of Foster melodies, show tunes, and popular selections. Admission is free.

In the same location at 8 p.m., Dick and Ann Allen, who are giving concerts across the state this summer, will present a program of traditional fiddler and folk music. This second program is also free.

In the same location at 8:30 p.m., the regularly scheduled performance of "The Stephen Foster Story" will be presented in the J. Dan Talbot Amphitheater, also on the grounds of My Old Kentucky Home. This romanticized story of the famous composer's life is now in its 19th season.

Reservations for "The Stephen Foster Story" are available by calling 902-842-8277.

Ladies teams tie in golf scramble

Two teams tied for first place with a low score of 41 in the Ladies Day golf scramble last Thursday at Carrico Country Club.

After a drawing, the following ladies were declared winners: Mrs. Henry Peters, Mrs. Joe Frank Conley, Mrs. Bob Duffee, and Mrs. W. J. Clark. The second-place team members are: Mrs. Billy Egan Anderson, Mrs. Joe Croach, Mrs. Joseph H. Conley, and Mrs. Harvey Wilson.

A Pinewoods Scramble is scheduled at Carrico Country Club on Monday. Anyone interested in playing in the scramble may contact the pro, Hal Washington, for further information and to sign up for the tournament.

A dinner-dance is scheduled Friday, July 1, at the club. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Sam Kuch at the club.

Lyle Anderson, Billy Egan Anderson, and Tim Dudley played in the Oryziana Country Club Invitational Golf Tournament over the weekend. Lyle Anderson placed third in his flight and Dudley was fifth in his flight.

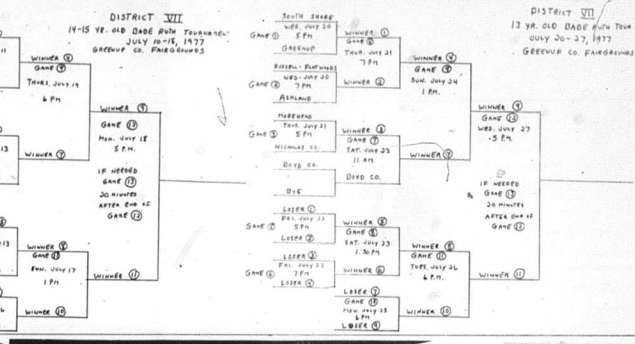

Although golf was rained out Friday, four ladies from Carrico Country Club attended the Ladies Day Invitational at Stonor Creek Country Club. They are Mrs. Joe Frank Conley, Mrs. Barbara Paul, Mrs. Billy Egan Anderson and Mrs. Joe Croach.

Mrs. Darbo also won lowest putts and best-bee awards recently. Mrs. Marion Sims Jr. won the longest putt award.

Wynne Shumate of WindStone Farms, Carlisle, bought half interest in an open three-fourth structural beiter, daughter of Albert, during the first annual Joint Pot-De-Roy Classic in Lexington.

Mr. Shumate paid $4,500 for the second high selling lot. This pooled prospect is slated to go to transplant later this year.

K. Gilkerson pitched for the A's in the second game and got the win as the A's won 3-1. Matten, M. Howell, M. Hatten (2), B. Brett (2), T. Crawford, and W. McKee (2). Hitting for the Senators were: S. Fryman, T. Hood (2), T. Gunn, J. Clay, and F. Hatfield. As of Tuesday, June 21, the Giants were only one game ahead of the A's in the half season of Tuesday's second game, the play.
