Kay's Kitchen

— By Kay Fisher

Since I have had a request for information on chestnuts, will give it this week so you will have plenty of time to decide before Thanksgiving if you want to try using them in dressing, or what have you, for that festive meal.

Personally I am glad chestnuts are again available. They have been off the market for some years because of a blight that killed the once plentiful trees quite a few years ago.

First let's get down to how to prepare the chestnuts so they will be eatable.

CHESTNUTS

To shell and blanch chestnuts, prick or slit the flat side well, place nuts in pan, mix with oil, using about 1 teaspoon for each cup of nuts, and bake in a very hot oven (450 degrees) about 20 minutes. Watch that they do not burn. When cool enough to handle, remove shells and skins with sharp knife. Or cut slits in each nut, put in heavy frying pan, mix with oil to just coat shells and shake over a fire about 10 minutes.

TO BOIL CHESTNUTS:

Blanch and simmer, covered, in boiling salted water to cover, 8 to 20 minutes, or until just tender; drain. Mash, chop or rice and season with salt, pepper and butter. Allow 1½ to 2 pounds of chestnuts for 6 portions.

CHESTNUT STUFFING FOR TURKEY:

4 cups chestnuts (prepared as above, boiled, riced)
¼ cup butter
1 egg
2 cups bread crumbs
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
½ cup chopped celery
2 tablespoons chopped onion
cream and, or turkey stock
salt and pepper, season to taste

Prepare chestnuts as above and combine with rest of the ingredients. The amount of cream and stock depends on how moist you like the dressing.

CHESTNUT STUFFING NO. 2

1 egg
1 pound of chestnuts
¼ cup turkey fat
¼ cup butter
2 cups chopped celery
½ cup chopped onion
6 cups bread crumbs
Parsley, desired amount, chopped fine
Salt and pepper

Boil the chestnuts for about twenty minutes. Remove the shells and brown skins while the nuts are still hot. Melt the turkey fat and add the butter. Cook the celery and onion in this for a few minutes, add a few sprigs of chopped parsley and the egg, bread crumbs and chopped chestnuts; season to taste with salt and pepper. Stir mixture until it is thoroughly mixed and hot. Wipe the turkey dry inside, sprinkle with salt and fill with hot stuffing.

This recipe is sufficient for a ten pound turkey. You may add lightly of all ingredients for a larger bird. Taste for seasoning. I use this recipe because a 10 pound bird is as large as I cook.

CHESTNUT BALLS

1 pound chestnuts
½ cup soft bread crumbs
1 egg, beaten
¼ cup water
Salt and pepper

Shell and blanch chestnuts (as for boiled chestnuts) and cook in boiling water for about 20 minutes, or until tender. Drain and chop; add crumbs, egg and water, cook over slow fire until mixture is almost dry and holds together. Season to taste and roll into balls. Serve as a meat or fish accompaniment.

TURKEY AND CHESTNUT SALAD

Use 1 cup diced turkey, ½ cup chopped, boiled chestnuts, 1 cup diced celery, 2 hard cooked eggs, chopped, and 10 stuffed olives, chopped, moisten as desired with mayonnaise.

This last request for Cranberry Salad for Thanksgiving dinner.

CRANBERRY SALAD

One 3 oz. package of raspberry flavored gelatin dissolved in 1 cup boiling water or fruit juice if you have any on hand, and 1 cup cold water, or fruit juice. I usually have fruit juices left over from canned fruits I use in salads or desserts, so I use all fruit juice instead of any water. Add 1 can whole cranberry sauce, ½ cup diced celery, and 1 small can well drained crushed pineapple or pineapple chunks. Do cut the chunks a bit smaller, and add ½ cup chopped pecans. Mold in either a flat dish or individual molds.

Mt. Zion preacher resigns

by Avery Mitchell

Rev. L. R. Haubner of Georgetown, Ohio who has been preaching at Mt. Zion for the past seven years, will be leaving Sunday, Nov. 20. He will be preaching Sunday morning but no night service will be held.

Since Rev. Haubner has been at Mt. Zion, lots of new members have been added to the church roll coming from other parts of the county as well as Mt. Zion. There has been lots of improvements made in the building. At the present time a plank fence is being built around the graveyard and another room is being built to have rest rooms. Also a cistern will be in use real soon.

Bro. Haubner does a lot of visiting on Sunday in peoples homes, nursing homes and hospitals. He will be missed by these people. He was well liked by the young people as well as the old. One thing he did while at Mt. Zion for the seven years was give all the kids a stick of gum as they were leaving church on Sunday. His wife, Freda, was very active for the Mt. Zion Church.

At the present time Rev. Haubner does not know where he will settle down. But he wants to keep on doing the Lord's work. The Haubners have one son in Florida whom they will spend some time with and another son in Brasil who is a missionary of the Christian Church.

Sunday morning, Nov. 20, there will be Sunday School and a morning sermon at 12:30 p.m. followed by a potluck dinner, and afternoon services. There will be no night services. Come and join us this day. Rev. Haubner will be glad to see you and there will be plenty food.

Rev. Haubner was just recently appointed a Kentucky Colonel by Gov. Julian Carroll.
