Mrs. Becker to host Moorefield Homemakers

The Moorefield Homemakers Club met recently at the home of Mrs. W.J. Clark with Mrs. Elgin T. Clark as co-hostess.

The minutes were read by Mrs. James Hamm in the absence of Mrs. Mike Jones. The devotional was given by Mrs. J.S. Wilson who read from Proverbs. She also used two poems, "Homes" and "Blueprint for Homes."

Calendars were filled in with business and project leaders for the year. The club voted to order 18 song books entitled "Sing Kentucky, Sing" for club use.

A lesson was given by Mrs. Ken Urlage on "Economical Entertaining." She gave several new recipes.

Recreation was led by Mrs. Joe Smart in the absence of Mrs. Jimmy Conrad.

Cinderella Sisters exchanged revealing gifts and drew new names for this year.

Club members are asked to count the book they've read, to keep an account of their canned and frozen vegetables, the clothing made, mended, etc. so they can report to the chairman at the next meeting which will be at the home of Mrs. Jack Becker.

Addresses wanted

Persons from Lexington, Fayette and surrounding counties and central Kentucky, with relatives or friends serving overseas, are asked to forward their names and addresses to the Concerned Citizens Committee, P. O. Box 306, Lexington, KY 40501. Christmas packages and personal greetings are being prepared for them. One of the names submitted will be selected to receive a phone call from his parents on Christmas morning, at the concerned citizens committee expense.

Also this year, relatives will be able to send a 15 minute personal taped conversation to their loved ones, again at the expense of the Concerned Citizens Committee.
