

Kay's Kitchen

— By Kay Fisher —

This past week must have been one of my off weeks. There simply was not 24 hours to get all of the things I had planned done. Maybe I mismanaged my time. Somehow a weekend away from home gets me off schedule, but it's worth it. Of course, I could blame it on dental appointments, but some unexpected errands, or just being disorganized, but it was one of those times when going out for a meal would have suited me fine. Even an invitation to McDonald's would have sounded good! Anyway I did come up with a good meal or two. The following recipe may be adjusted to any size family, but was prepared early in the day and it is good reheated for another meal, if there is any left over. These proportions will serve about four persons.

SANDWICH CASEROLE:
 4 pound hot beef sausage
 1 green pepper, cut into strips
 1 medium onion, chopped or sliced
 1 pound corn, chopped
 1 pound canned tomatoes
 1/2 cup uncooked macaroni
 Worcestershire sauce, generous dash or three
 Italian seasoning
 Small jar of mushrooms, stems and caps, use liquid
 1/2 cup grated cheddar cheese
 Butter spread on skillet that has a light fitting lid; pour off drippings.
