BLOODHOUNDS 'Sniff-out' missing man August 2

Members of the National Police Bloodhound Association, Garrett Caudill and Ray Mardin along with bloodhounds, Brutus and Treat, were called to Nicholas County late Wednesday, August 2, to help in locating a man who had been missing since Monday night. Roy T. Sapp 55, Route 4, Carlisle, was last seen around 8 p.m. on Monday, July 31. His pickup truck was found wrecked on the Mexico Road and it was feared Mr. Sapp had wandered into the nearby Licking River. After a search by local authorities did not reveal Mr. Sapp's whereabouts, the bloodhounds were called in to track Mr. Sapp. The dogs were given a scent from Mr. Sapp's clothing and approximately 20 minutes later; Brutus led the search party to a vacant house where Mr. Sapp was found sleeping.

Mr. Mardin is a member of the Lexington Metro Police Department and Mr. Caudill is a member of the Midway Police Department. Sheriff J. W. Ecton and Deputy Ralph Brookshire also assisted in the search.

WHO WAS THAT LADY?

Her early life is not without tragedy. Born in 1860, this woman lived the hard life of a farm wife, bore 10 children and raised the five who survived. At the age of 78, she decided to fulfill her childhood yearnings to be a painter and she began to work at it. She found some paint in her barn and, at first, used panels of masonite for canvas. The results were and are charming primitive renditions of quaint scenes from early American life, specifically the social customs of upstate New York. Now considered one of this country's great natural talents in art, she is also probably our best-known woman painter. Who was that lady? Grandma Moses.

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonal's, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found once the word is found. Each letter of a word letter has been used but will leave it in place should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left-over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD
