Nicholas County's sporty superstar Dwayne Williams was jumping his highest Thursday in a track meet that included Mason, Fleming and Lewis Counties.

NC Track Competing

The Nicholas County track team held a meet Thursday, April 27 with Fleming, Mason and Lewis Counties participating.

The Nicholas County boys won the meet with 64 1/2 points. Mason County scored 46, Fleming scored 29, and Lewis had 2 1/2.

The Mason County girls ran, jumped and cheered up 4 1/2 points to win in their division. The Nicholas County girls were second with 37 points, Fleming had 22 1/2 and Lewis County scored 18.

In other activity, the track team went to Woodford County and competed with several large schools including Somerset, Pulaski County, Harrodsburg and Woodford Central.

The best performer from Nicholas in the Woodford meet was Kevin Glikson who threw the discus 122 feet. Nicholas County finished the event with 16 points with three third places, a fourth place and a fifth place.

Tuesday, May 9 is the scheduled regional track tournament. Nicholas County will meet with other surrounding schools for a day of competitive tracking at Morehead State University. The events will begin at 10:00 a.m.

Golfers play, await tourney

The Nicholas County golf team participated in two matches last week. On Monday the team met in a three-way match with Saint Patrick and Mason County at the Mason County Country Club. Mason County placed first in the meet with the lowest score of 159. Nicholas County placed second with 167 and Saint Patrick placed third with 175 points.

The top four players from Nicholas County at the Mason County meet were: Sam Dudley who scored 41; Greg Haney and Mark Taylor also had 41; and Steve Anderson finished the game with 44.

On Thursday the team traveled to the Parkway Golf Course in Lexington and met with Sayre High School. Nicholas County won the match with the lowest score, 172. Sayre finished second with 178.

Sam Dudley ended the game with 40, Tim Dudley 42, Mark Taylor 43, and Greg Haney 46. Steve Anderson and Chris Baker also played in the match but were the high scorers.

Nicholas County will compete at the Spring Lake Golf Course on May 9 for the regional championship.

Baseballers lose

The Nicholas County baseball team played Bourbon County Friday at the Nicholas County Recreation Park. The Bluejackets lost to Bourbon 1-0.

Friday's game was slow in starting. Neither team scored until fifth inning where Bourbon County managed to get two players safely to homeplate. Bourbon failed to score again until the top of the seventh where six runs were scored to give them their winning seven point lead. Bourbon had 11 hits in the game with one error.

Nicholas County scored only one time during the game and it was a home run by Mike Hutton in the bottom of the sixth inning. The Bluejackets had three hits in the game and two errors.

Coaches from Harrison, Nicholas, Bourbon Counties and MMI and Paris High School drew Sunday for the district tournament matches. The tournament begins May 1 at the ## HOSPITAL ADMISSION NOTICE!

- ### ADMISSION PROCEDURES
- 1) The patient to be admitted must check in with the front office.
  - 2) The patient ledger will be checked for an outstanding balance.
  - 3) A patient owed balance for two previous visits or more must be paid before a patient may be admitted. The only exceptions are: a) "TRUE EMERGENCIES" b) a record of constant and current payments made toward a previous balance or c) consent of the hospital board.
  - 4) If the patient to be admitted has defaulted on payments toward a previous balance, that balance must be paid in full before the patient may be admitted.
  - 5) If a payment plan to pay a previous balance is set up at the time of admission, the first payment must be made before the patient may be admitted.
  - 6) The patient will be asked for insurance cards and forms.
  - 7) If the patient has no insurance, a $150 deposit will be necessary and a payment plan agreement must be signed.
  - 8) An admission form will be filled out only if these procedures are followed.
- ### OUTPATIENT AND EMERGENCY ROOM PROCEDURES
- 1) The patient must check in with the front office.
  - 2) The patient ledger will be checked for an outstanding balance.
  - 3) A patient owed balance for two previous visits or more must be paid before a lab slip may be filled out.
  - 4) If the patient cannot pay in full, a payment plan form must be signed and the first payment made before a lab slip may be filled out.
