Nicholas County Bluejacket football coach Ben Pumphrey and Kevin Gilkison look over a news story that lists Gilkison as a first team Class A All-State selection. Pumphrey also received votes in coach-of-the-year balloting. Records corrected

In last week's Mercury it was incorrectly stated that the 1977 won-lost record for the Nicholas County High School football Bluejackets was 10-1. The correct record was 10-2, with the second loss coming to Woodford County in a post-season game. The only other 1977 loss was to Raceland, which knocked last year's Jackets out of the Class A' playoff picture.

The record for 1976 was also 10-2, with the only losses coming to Bellevue, once during the regular season and once in the Region Three title game.

For the past three years the Bluejackets have compiled a 27-6 record for a 75 per cent winning percentage while garnering two district titles, including the first in the school's history in 1976.

High school uses three-in-one policy for trip

by Barry Ritchie, Duane Kirby and Judy Ratliff

Mrs. Bonnie Metcalf, home economics teacher, returned to Nicholas County High School last Monday after a short period of absence. Mrs. Metcalf recently gave birth to a daughter, Meagan Leigh.

Three for one was the policy Nicholas County High School used recently as it combined three trips to Lexington in one bus.

Semester Housing class, accompanied by Mrs. Bonnie Metcalf, visited the University of Kentucky Interior Design department where they discussed careers in interior design with Dr. Rankin. Later they were given a tour of Ethan Allen's by interior decorator David Perry.

Thespians and a few Speech and Drama club members visited the Guignol Theater in the Fine Arts Center with Mrs. Vickie McConnell to view different fields of study in teater and music.

Mrs. Martha Taylor escorted the Gainful Child Development class to the Home Economics department at U. K. to observe the care of handicapped children.

Although extended two days, when magazine sales closed, the junior class hadn't reached their minimum goal of $5,000. The class total was about $3,300.

Top salesperson was Teresa Brooks with $357.16 in magazine subscriptions. She won a car tape player and a stereo system.

Morehead State university's Jazz Ensemble entertained Nicholas County High School students to recruit more music students for the college.

A Pot-luck Football Banquet was held at the 4-H camp to honor graduating members and to present juniors with letter jackets.

Lynn Judge's name was mistakenly omitted from last week's honor roll. She made a 3.6 grade average.

Thespian play, "Meet Me at the Prom", will be held Dec. 22 in the high school gym. The play is being directed by Mrs. McConnell and student director Chris Baker. Members of the cast are as follows:

Pudge Burnett, Ron Rorer; Julia Cartwright, Becky Evans; Elsie Hacker, Kathy Mathis; Cal Henry, Wendell McKee; Mrs. Trainor, Martha Woosley; Don Leonard, Tony Smith; Mrs. Fanshaw, Wray Jean Hunt; Freshman Girl, Cindy Ritchie.

The Nicholas County Lady Jackets were defeated a week ago Saturday by the Grant County Squaws by a score of 39-23.
