

Carnico has new champ with same name

For the first time since its beginning in 1976, Lake Carnico Country Club has a new men's golf champion. Andy Dudley, club champ for the past four years, lost his title in the finals of this year's tourney to Tim Dudley, his son.

The match, drew into the creek on 16 and lost another hole with a bogey. The door closed for the former champ, on 17 when Tim, after watching his father sink an 18-hole birdie putt, calmly caught a 6-foot birdie of his own to halve to the hole and take the match 2 and 1. Tim, an 18-year-old senior at Nicholas County High School, started his golf career at the age of 11. Prior to moving to Carlisle, he had played out of the Hidden Valley Golf Club in Clay City and the Winchester Country Club. He is the captain of the golf team at NCHS and also plays basketball there.

The two Dudleys had never competed against each other before in tournament play although they had played many times before in informal matches. Oddly enough, it was the match of another Dudley that Andy believes made the difference.

"Tim spent two weeks this summer with my brother Mike, who's the head pro at the Coldstream Country Club in Cincinnati," Andy said. "Mike gave him some lessons in the morning and Tim would play in the afternoons. He's been playing a lot better since then."

Tim, a six-handicapper at Lake Carnico, shot a two-under-par 70 in the championship match while Andy carded a regulation 72. His father says his driving and putting are his strong points, with his putting maybe a little better.

Whatever his strengths on the links, Tim comes by his athletic ability honestly. The three Dudley brothers — Andy, Mike and Steve — are well-known in Kentucky for their athletic accomplishments. Andy and Mike were members of the 1961 Clark County basketball team that captured the Sweet Sixteen crown. Steve has a bowling alley in Winchester and is a familiar figure in Bluegrass golf tournaments. In addition, Mike played on the golf team for a short while before going to Cincinnati and Coldstream, one of that city's most exclusive — and difficult — country club courses.

"Naturally I'm very proud of Tim," Andy said with a ruffled grin, "although I did hate to give the crown up. But the only lesson he's had have been from me and his Uncle Mike."

"I'll be back after it next year," he warned. Meanwhile, another son, Sam, is waiting in the wings and hoping his handicap down from 12 to 7 for the day when he can challenge his father and brother on the course. In the ladies' tourney Brenda Anderson won the title for the second straight year, beating Joyce Wallace 3 and 2. Other eight winners and runners-up are as follows:

First Flight, Men — Lyle Anderson over Jim Rowles 5 and 4. Second Flight, Men — John Hamilton over Bobby Sims 3 and 2. Third Flight, Men — Ron Goodman over Marion Sims 3 and 2.

Second Flight, Ladies — Martha Taylor over Minnie Crouch 2 up. There were 21 men and 16 women competing in this year's tournaments.

Recommended: the new CLIMAX BLUES BAND single, "Mistress Moonshine," taken from their current "Blues On LP — FLEETWOOD MAC breaks may like the new overseas paperback bio on the group that just came out, but still, we couldn't fault the 50 pages of photos and the 10-page discography that's a real gem.
