Kay's Kitchen

After Easter — If you have a large family and have eaten the greatest portion of your Easter ham, here are a few things that might help you get a little bit that is left.

HOLLY POLY HAM ROLL

Prepare a rich biscuit dough, roll a little thinner than you would for biscuits, about one-fourth of an inch thick, maybe a little thicker.

amount of ham used. Rollie Poly is good served for lunch with a fruit salad. When serving the roll to dinner, well seasoned green beans go nicely. A side salad of carrots, celery, olives, and pickles. A side dish of cranberries also goes well. Be sure to prepare tomato slices several hours before serving. Sprinkle them lightly with a salad dressing, such as oil and vinegar and sprinkle a small pinch of sweet basil over them.

HAM SALAD

Ham Salad, of course, is an old standby. Finely chopped egg and hot mustard dressing are the basic ingredients.
