Child abuse is real

"Mommy! Mommy!" cries often heard in the night from a neglected child. Many families arrive, but only to be angry and upset with their kids...

Those were just a couple of reasons parents give to beat their children. But are they good enough? No...

Suicide—or murder?

Murder. A word that sends chills down your spine. A harsh word meaning death. Death, like those resulting from a mass murder-suicide in which 113 members of the Peoples Temple and their children perished...

Of course, it is impossible to rule out all organization's leaders, because all are not inhuman, but close watch should be kept on "church" organizations — perhaps by thoughtful observation...

Special session may transfer taxes instead of cutting them

By S. V. Carr. "FRANKFORT" — The call for the special session of the General Assembly for Jan. 14 is generally understood as a tax-cutting session.

Only a reasonable tax should be levied. A tax on all other minerals would not come close to producing the revenue that the coal severance tax produces for the general fund...

and Kentucky do not derive any revenue from it. Only a reasonable tax should be levied. A tax on all other minerals would not come close to producing the revenue that the coal severance tax produces for the general fund...

While this entire apportioning may seem a thorough study during this special session, it is not. It is a study in real estate, and escalating values just mean higher tax bills for the property owners...

Kentucky Reflections

Jonestown, Thelma, the $— 1978 was unusual year

by George Street House

ELKTON—Since the rest of our lives will be spent in the future, one of the best ways to remember the past is that it can only exist one day at a time.

As the new year dawns, it looks as if Kentucky may be treated to a legislative political extravaganza of considerable nature.

America's 'friend' Syria gets $90 million in aid

By Anthony Harrigan

Though President Carter vetoed the public funds bill, on the ground that it represented a "soft barrier" approach to spending, he used his political acumen to obtain passage of P. A. 1000 in foreign port barrel legislation.

On the other hand, the foreign aid gateway attitude of the Carter administration is shocking and repulsive. For example, the administration insisted that $90 million be given to Syria for military assistance...
