Iran's gratitude

It is difficult these days to pick up a daily newspaper, magazine or turn on the television news without some mention of Iran and the troubles there. There have been many demonstrations in the past few months that have overshadowed previous demonstrations and news films of fighting in the streets of Teheran is becoming common on the network programs.

General Assembly independent? Yes, if it really wants to be by G. C. Van Over. "TRANSPARENCY" is the opportunity to stand for the legislature to be fully independent of the executive branch. At least that is what Gov. Julian Carroll and Lt. Gov. Thelma Stovall have told news. Now, it is up to the legislature to achieve a status in this nation as that of independent, as the point it has decided all through the years.

Smart student of month; chicken thieves hit Miranda

Thursday, January 25, 1979. One hundred years of service is represented by three Southern Bell Telephone Company operators who were awarded service pins at a luncheon held at their honor Jan. 15 at the Haveland Restaurant. They are Mrs. Stanley Kenner, 30 years; Mrs. Harriet Haveland, 30 years; and Edith Wason, 35 years.

Thursday, January 26, 1979. Sixty-two chickens were stolen from two residents of the Miranda section last Thursday night and officers have been unable to trace the thieves, although they are working on cases which may lead to an arrest. Ben Harry Peiers Sr., who has held the position for several years, has resigned. The Nicholas County Game and Fish Club last Thursday night voted to offer a bounty of $500 for each hawk killed and delivered to Ezzavet M. Smith, Sunday.

Julian in the lawmakers' den. Gov. Julian Carroll appeared before the Kentucky General Assembly last Thursday and spoke to the legislators about the state budget and areas where taxes could be cut. Carroll said he was leaving the session's legislation up to the lawmakers but offered his assistance. "You tell me what you need and I'll tell you how to do it," State photo.

Seventies are ending - thank goodness!

by Anthony Harrigan. The American people enter the final year of the decade problem of the 1970s. Unhappily, it's been all downhill for the United States since the late 1960s. Unless the nation gets better leadership, conditions will worsen as the seventies come to a close.

'No way' otherwise. Cut taxes, cut services. Carroll tells lawmakers. There is no way to cut taxes without a corresponding cut in services, Gov. Julian Carroll said today before a joint appropriations and Revenue Committee meeting in the House chamber.

Carroll told the committee that the special session is "a vital issue to all of you, all of us and all the taxpayers of the Commonwealth." Carroll said, "If I had had my way you would have come out of that $3.5 million budget, including the cost of national guard services during recent flooding, feet, food, prisoners, crisis assistance to flood victims and possible judgments against the state in the Beverly Hills and Prudential Savings and Loan case.

Carroll said the state would be affected both by a reduction in direct federal spending and also by the effect of a drop in federal expenditures on the national economy. He attacked some aspects of a tax proposal reported by the Lieutenant Governor as "so ridiculous that it hardly deserves any comment at all." However, he admitted that the report "is accurate to some extent" in that
