Beginning Feb. 1 all Kentucky subscriptions to the Carlisle Mercury except for those subscribers living within the geographical limits of Nicholas County will be raised from $6 plus tax to $7 plus tax per year. Subscribers in Nicholas County will still pay $6 per year plus tax for their Mercury and out-of-state subscriptions will remain at $9 per year.

Out-of-county subscribers who live in the state of Kentucky may renew their subscriptions for the old price of $6 plus tax per year until Feb. 1. After that date the new rate schedule will be in effect.

This price increase is due to the rising cost of postage and the periodic raises in the price of newsprint, which are passed on to the Mercury by our printers. The single-copy newsstand price of 20 cents will remain the same.
