Wildcats, Pan Am to play

"A rare reunion of the past 15 years of Kentucky basketball tradition," was how University of Kentucky coach Joe B. Hall described Friday night's game between a UK All-Star team and the 1979 Pan Am Team to be played in Lexington's Rupp Arena.

Hall will be coaching the All-Stars, a 19 member squad composed of active players who played at UK during the past 15 years. Named on the team are Louie Dampier, Dan Issel, Mike Phillips, Rick Robey, Jim Andrews, Jack Givens, James Lee, Dwane Casey, Truman Claytor, Mike Flynn, Bob Guyette, Bonnie Lyons, Ray Edelman, Jerry Hale, Larry Stamper, Jimmy Dan Conner, Reggie Warford, Kevin Grevey, and Larry Steele.

The Pan Am Team, coached by Indiana University coach Bobby Knight, lists on its roster Kyle Macy (Kentucky), Ray Tolbert (Indiana), Sam Clancy (Pittsburgh), Asiah Thomas (Indiana), Ralph Sampson (Virginia), Mike O'Koren (North Carolina), Ronnie Lester (Chicago), Michael Brooks (La Salle), John Duren (Georgetown Univ.), Kevin McHale (Minnesota), Dick Miller (Toledo), Mike Woodson (Indiana), and Danny Vranes (Utah).

The game will be a tune-up match for the Pan Am team which will gather next week in Colorado Springs to go to San Juan, Puerto Rico. The Pan Am Games, Olympic styled competition for teams from Western Hemisphere countries, opens in San Juan on July 1. The Pan Am Team is organized by the Amateur Basketball Association U.S.A. headquartered in Colorado Springs.

The exhibition game at Rupp Arena is set for 8 p.m., Friday, June 22. Tickets are on sale at the Lexington Center Ticket Office. Ticket sales have been brisk, according to Lexington Center officials, but plenty of good seats should be available until game time.

A portion of the proceeds will go to the Adolph F. Rupp-UK Basketball Museum Fund and a portion will be used to help with the expenses of the 1979 Pan Am Team.

Take time to unwind

It's difficult impossible to live without stress. Job pressures, family problems, money worries. These are just some of the stress-causing events that can leave you all wound up in knots.

In itself stress is not necessarily bad and it might even help you accomplish more. But too much stress or chronic stress may lead to health problems like hypertension, ulcers, rheumatoid arthritis and even heart disease.

That's why it's important to learn to help control stress. One of the best ways is simply to set aside some time every day, to relax. By learning to relax, you learn to relieve unnecessary stress. It'll help you be happier and healthier.

Sharing health is the best kind of health care and the cost is reasonable. You can help by taking care of yourself.

At Blue Cross and Blue Shield and Delta Dental of Kentucky we're concerned about your health care needs. That's why we're sending this announcement. Because, please take our booklet to help you be aware of stress. Write us for information on ways to improve health care, receive more value for your health care dollar. Send your name, address and request for "Stress Booklet" at the following address: Blue Cross and Blue Shield and Delta Dental of Kentucky, 9901 Linn Station Road, Louisville, KY 40223.

We want you to stay healthy.

THE CARING CORNER

"Let the children come to me, and do not hinder them; for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven."

Matthew 19:14

Education was important to Jesus. He was always teaching the children about the kingdom of heaven. He took time for it, placed priority on it, and encouraged us to do the same.

My father always stressed to me the value of education. It's something that no one else can take from you. Our children have one opportunity in life to obtain a good education. Are we giving it to them? Are we receiving good dividends from our investment?

Why not show some concern today? Tell a teacher that you care about him or her. It's important.

Join us this Sunday in caring.
