

Columbia granted rate hike

The Kentucky Energy Regulatory Commission has approved a 10-cent per 1,000 cubic feet of natural gas rate increase for Columbia Gas of Kentucky.

A 7-cent per 1,000 cu. ft. decrease granted just prior to the increase prevented an even higher increase.

Both the decrease and the increase reflect the fluctuating cost of wholesale natural gas supplied to Columbia by Columbia Gas Transmission Corp. Columbia Gas Transmission's decrease and increase has been approved by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

Residential customers will now pay a monthly rate of $4.34 for the first 1,000 cu. ft. of gas.

Commercial and industrial customers will pay $4.56 for the first 1,000 cu. ft. The rate drops as more gas is used.

Writer's month

Gov. Julian Carroll signs a proclamation declaring November "Kentucky Writer's Month." Watching the governor are, from left to right, David Orr, director of the Peace Trust, Pat Stewart, chairman of the Humanities Council, Nick Cox, executive director of the Kentucky Arts Commission, and Bill Bolte of the Kentucky Department of Libraries and Archives. The proclamation points out the growing interest in Kentucky writers and their contributions to state development. In connection with this enthusiasm for Kentucky writing the "Celebration of Kentucky Writers" conference will be held Nov. 9-11 at the University of Louisville. —State photo.

BOBBY BARNETT
City Council

CARLISLE, KY.

NOV. 6, 1979

Kentucky needs a leader we can be proud of.

John Y. Brown, Jr. understands the people of Kentucky. He knows that Kentuckians want a leader as Governor—a man they can be proud of. That's why John Y. Brown, Jr. has consistently run a positive campaign—based on his own record and positions—instead of a headline-negative attack on his opponent.

A Record of Leadership

Let's take a look at his record. While still working his way through law school, John Y. Brown, Jr. became the most successful salesman in the history of Kentucky's Borden's. He helped build Kentucky's Fried Chicken into the largest franchised restaurant company in the world. He organized national meetings in 1972 through 1975 that helped the national Democratic party out of bankruptcy.

For the Future of All Kentuckians

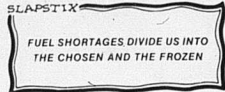

John Y. Brown, Jr. has shown his sensitivity to young and old alike by building the Louisville YMCA and the Sanders-Brown Center on Aging. A businessman, an entrepreneur, a proven leader, John Y. Brown, Jr. can make government work for people. He can put you in a homelike home, that will create job opportunities and a future for all Kentuckians. All he needs is your support.
