Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

With the cooler weather it is nice to think of the oven and to small homemade bread cooking. If you like to bake, starting from scratch, the following recipe is easy to follow and you can make several different breads from the basic recipe.

LIGHT BREAD
6 to 8 cups all-purpose flour
2 packages active dry yeast
1 cup milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup shortening
2 eggs
In large mixing bowl mix 3/4 cup flour and yeast. Heat milk, sugar, shortening, 1 cup water, and 2 teaspoons salt until just warm (115-120 degrees F.), stirring constantly. Add dry mixture; add eggs. Beat at low speed of electric mixer 1/2 minute, scrape bowl. Beat 3 minutes at high speed, by hand, stir in enough remaining flour to make soft dough. Knead on floured surface until smooth, about 4 to 10 minutes.

Place in 2 greased 13 by 9 by 2 inch baking pans. Cover; let rise until double, 45 to 60 minutes. Bake at 350 degrees F. for 15 to 20 minutes. Makes 26 rolls.

SEMI-SWEET BREAD
Prepare Light Bread dough, except after the first rising; divide into 6 pieces, roll to 16-inch ropes. Using 3 ropes for each, shape into 2 braids on greased baking sheet. Cover, let rise until double in bulk. Brush with unbeaten egg white, sprinkle with sesame seeds. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 20 to 25 minutes. Makes 2 braids.

PENNY ROLLS
1 package dry yeast
1/2 cup warm water
1/4 cup sugar
1 tablespoon salted oil
1 teaspoon salt
1 whole egg
3 or 3 1/2 cups flour
Combine yeast, warm water and sugar. Add to combined salt, oil, hot water and egg when mixture is warm. Add 3 cups flour. Beat on medium speed of mixer for 2 minutes. Add rest of flour and beat with a spoon for additional 3 minutes. Cover, and let rise until double in bulk. Stir down with 20 or 25 strokes. Cover and place in refrigerator overnight. Make out into rolls and let rise 45-60 minutes. Bake at 375 degrees for 10 minutes, or some times longer. Makes 3/4 dozen small rolls.

PAN ROLLS
Prepare Light Bread dough except after the first rising; shape into 36 rolls.

THE CARING CORNER

"For each person do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by fair and flattering words they deceive the hearts of the simple minded." - Romans 16:18

Two policemen helped the teenage boy into the front room of his home late Saturday night. His mother stood horrified as they sat the drunken boy down in a chair and left. Finally, the mother screamed, "Why have you been drinking and gotten so horribly drunk? I am ashamed of you."

"Ah, get Mom, he drowned." "You and Dad dipk all the time at parties..."

"Yes," she admitted, "But NEVER so excessively!"

What this mother learned the hard way that evening was: What parents take in moderation their children excuse in excess. Young people are crying out for a model to pattern their lives after - an example to follow. If we do not give them a good one, they will find their own.

Join us this Sunday in caring.

Jobs on rise

Kentucky's labor force reached an all-time high in September, the Department for Human Resources announced last week.

The state's labor force numbered 1,606,000 persons during September. That is 20,700 more than the number of persons working or available for work in August, says Robert MacDonald, chief labor market analyst for the department.

The preliminary unemployment rate for September was 5.3 percent of the labor force, down 0.3 percentage points from August.

The number of unemployed Kentuckians in September dropped 5,700 from August, primarily because of increased hiring by government and trade and agriculture industries, says MacDonald. "Manufacturing employment, primarily in the metals, apparel and chemical industries, continued on a downward trend," he says.

Unemployment during 1979 has been at about the same level as during 1978. MacDonald says the rate of growth of new jobs apparently has been sufficient to take care of persons entering the labor force but not enough to reduce the overall level of unemployment.

The national unemployment for September was 5.6 percent.
