Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

In going over some of my old recipes I come across these. They seem appropriate for today, with meat prices as they are.

ROLLED BISCUITS

1¾ cups sifted flour (all white or white and whole wheat combined)
½ teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons double-acting baking powder.
4 to 6 tablespoons chilled butter or shortening
¾ cup milk

Sift dry ingredients together in a large bowl. Cut in shortening until mixture is consistency of coarse cornmeal.

Make a well in the center; then add milk all at once. Stir cautiously and gently until dough is free from the sides of the bowl.

Turn dough on to a lightly floured board. Knead gently and quickly, making about 8 or 10 folds. Roll with a lightly floured rolling pin, until dough is desired thickness. Proceed with above recipe.

HAMBURGER ROLL

1 pound ground chuck
½ cup chopped onion
½ cup chopped green pepper
Butter or beef fat
½ teaspoon salt
one-eighth teaspoon pepper
1 recipe rolled biscuit dough

In a heavy skillet brown the beef, onion and green pepper in butter or beef fat. Add seasonings.

Make biscuit dough, roll it out and spread with meat mixture. Roll up like jelly roll. If dough is soft, cover and chill in refrigerator for awhile.

Cut into 1½ inch slices. Place these slices in a greased pan, brush tops with melted butter. Bake 20 to 25 minutes in 450-degree oven. Use a beef gravy or cheese sauce with this dish, if desired. Complete the meal with green peas and braised celery. Serves five or six.

CISSY GREGG'S SPOON BREAD

2 cups cornmeal
1 cup boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon drippings or butter
2 eggs, separated
1 teaspoon baking soda
2 cups buttermilk

Pour the boiling water into the meal and mix well. Beat in the fat and egg yolks. Mix the soda in the buttermilk and stir into meal mixture until smooth. Beat the egg whites stiff and fold into the batter. Pour into a hot, greased 1½-quart casserole and bake in a 400-degree oven until firm and brown, about 40 minutes.

CORN DODGERS

1 cup cornmeal
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon melted bacon drippings
Boiling water

Stir the salt into the meal, then stir in fat and enough boiling water to make a very stiff batter or dough. Mold the dough in the palm of the hand into little cakes. Bake in a 450-degree oven in a greased skillet until browned or drop into about an inch of hot fat and brown on all sides. Serves two.

On timers

Phyllis Brady and Mark Ritchie received perfect attendance awards recently from the Headquarters United Methodist Church. Mrs. Brady's was for 15 perfect years and Mark's was for 18 years without a miss. Mrs. Brady is a Sunday School teacher, president of the Methodist women, secretary of the board, counselor for the youth and communion steward. Mark is president of the church's youth group. —Photo submitted.

Mrs. Joe Allen gives program

The October meeting of The Carlisle Garden Club was held Monday 5 in the Library Club room.

Mrs. Lena Williams, president assisted by Miss Mary Lois Campbell, secretary and Mrs. W.J. Clark, treasurer, conducted the business.

Mrs. Wayne Shumate gave The Spiritual values, "To Everything There Is a Season", reading from Ecclisiastes 3, commenting on the same.

Mrs. Shumate introduced Mrs. Joe Allen, of Bourbon County who gave the program.

Mrs. Allen, in a very informal way, delighted the members as she worked, making several arrangements.

She emphasized using cuttings from trees, shrubs, and flowers of our own surroundings, often putting them in unusual containers.

Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Grimes Caywood hostesses, served a dessert, coffee and homemade candy to the 19 members present.

THE CARING CORNER

"We know that in everything God works for good with those who love him..." Romans 8:28

Are you disappointed? Disappointment can cause you to be so emotionally disturbed and depressed that you are unable even to think clearly!

Disappointment may strike us at most any time. When it strikes, we must practice loving God a little more. We need to sit back, analyze our life to make certain we are thinking and living in harmony with God – it could be that we are off the spiritual beam! Then, instead of dwelling upon the word "disappointment," think of it as "His appointment." What we regard as a failure may be a wonderful new plan for our life. It could be that through disappointment we are being shown another way. It is always wise to take a positive view toward disappointment because God is there!!

Join us this Sunday in caring.
