Mr. and Mrs. George Reynolds Garrett

Miss Bowles weds Mr. Garrett Aug. 3

Miss Angela Ruth Bowles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Bowles, became the bride of George Reynolds Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgin (Jake) Garrett, Sr. of Moorefield. The double ring ceremony was performed at the Moorefield Methodist Church, Friday, August 3, at 8:00 p.m., by County Judge Executive Reese Smoot, uncle of the bride, and assisting was the Rev. Howard Livingood.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace over taffeta, fashioned with a Queen Anne neckline, long bishop sleeves and fitted bodice.

A chapel length train and cap held the chapel length veil trimmed with chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow silk roses and daisies.

The maid of honor was Mrs. Sylvia Mann of Carlisle, sister of the groom. She wore a floor length dress of light blue polished knit and a light blue picture hat. Her bouquet was of white silk daisies.

The best man was Phillip Burke of Carlisle.

The ushers were Roger K. Bowles of Carlisle, brother of the bride, Timothy Garrett, brother of the groom and Gary Ring.

A program of wedding music was played by Mrs. Kim Moran. Mrs. Janet Kay Smoot and Mrs. Janie Eyster sang.

Miss Griffith marries in candlelight ceremony

The wedding of Miss Mary Jane Griffith, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. Gerald Sousley Griffith of Heidelberg, Germany, and Richard Stephen Curtsinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garvey Lee Curtsinger of Nicholas County, was solemnized in a candle light ceremony on Friday evening, August the 17th at the Carlisle United Methodist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Albert C. Allen. Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Robert Coatney. The candles were lighted by Greg Curtsinger, younger brother of the groom. The guest register was kept by Miss Mary Jane Harper.

The vows were exchanged before the alter decorated with twin candelabra and baskets of white glads, baby mums and carnations. The Unity candle at the alter was lighted by the couple during the ceremony.

Escorted to the alter by her father and given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a white floor length gown of giana, styled with a cathedral train and empire waist line. The Queen Anne neckline and cap sleeves were edged with Venice lace as were the hem line and train. The mantilla style veil of illusion was edged in matching lace.

The brides bouquet was fashioned of roses, baby mums, daisies and baby's breath and tied with lace ribbon.

Attending the bride as maid-of-honor was her sister Miss Elizabeth Griffith. She wore a gown of pale green sea foam giana. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses, daisies and baby's breath tied with yellow satin ribbon. Brides maids were Miss Cary Griffith and Mrs. David Pugh, sisters of the bride, and Miss Debbie Owens. Their gowns were identical to the honor attendants in delicate shades of rose, yellow and blue. Their bouquets were the same but tied with ribbons matching their gowns.

Attending the groom as best man was Mark Hughes. Groomsmen were Larry Curtsinger, brother of the groom, Sammy Vice and Greg Letcher.

The bride's parents hosted the reception that was held in the Fellowship

True bargain found in Concert Series ticket

True bargains are hard to find these days, but for only $15 a membership in the Central Kentucky Concert and Lecture Series, which includes 12 outstanding programs, is surely one of the best bargains to be found anywhere.

The Central Kentucky Series is nationally famous for the high quality of the concerts and lectures it presents and for the impressive membership it has throughout the Blue Grass. In its nearly 50 years of existence, it has presented practically every major performing artist and attraction. Typically, the membership comprises 5,000 area residents and some 20,000 students at the University of Kentucky and Transylvania.

A quick look at this year's schedule makes it clear that the tradition of excellence continues.

The Chinese Acrobats of Taiwan, a company of 65, opens the series on Oct. 25, followed by the Fred Waring Show, "The Best of the Best," on Oct. 29. Other concert events are:

The Dresden State Orchestra conducted by Siegfried Kurz, Nov. 13; the Prague Chamber Orchestra with Hans Richter-Haaser as piano soloist, Nov. 29; Les Grands Ballets Canadiens, Jan. 29; violin virtuoso Eugene Fodor, Feb. 15; the Metropolitan baritone Theodor Uppman and New York City Opera soprano Eleanor Bergquist, March 4, and the Tamburitzan Dancers and Singers of Duquesne University, March 28.

Lecturers scheduled are John C. Sawhill, federal energy authority, Nov. 8; Hedrick Smith of the New York Times, authority on life in the Soviet Union, Dec. 4; Dr. Joseph Sisco, U.S. negotiator in the Arab-Israeli dispute, Jan. 23, and Marshall Loeb, head of Time's The Nation section, Feb. 28.

Memberships, at $15 each ($5 for children 5 to 14) may be obtained by mail from 440 Andover Drive, Lexington, Ky., 40502, or may be purchased at any First Security Bank location in Lexington during September. Checks should be made payable to Central Kentucky Concert Association or memberships may be charged to Visa or Master Charge accounts.

Kay's Kitchen

— By Kay Fisher —

If you are still in a state of shock after having gone thru a check book getting your children back in school maybe these recipes will help get the budget back on the right track, after all everyone still must be fed.

First, if you have a freezer, I would suggest you start digging into the freezer to come up with something to make do. You may find a casserole, cake, or perhaps a turkey leg and thigh bought at a special price, that really should be used now. That much turkey should make at least 1½ cups of cooked turkey, and there are dozens of ways to use the cooked meat, but do try this creamy turkey dish. Chicken can just as well be used.

CREAMY TURKEY PIE

1 cup sliced celery
Minced onion or powder to taste
2 tablespoons margarine
1 can (10 ¾ oz.) condensed cream of chicken soup
1½ cups cooked turkey, cubed
1½ cups cooked carrots cut in 1-inch pieces
¾ cup milk
2 teaspoons lemon juice
Any seasonings you like to make it taste good.
Your recipe for biscuits.

In sauce pan cook celery in margarine until tender. Stir in remaining ingredients except biscuits. Bring to a boil and simmer while making biscuits. Stir once in a while and taste for seasoning. Thicken if necessary.

Make biscuits and roll thinner than usual. Pour hot turkey or chicken mixture into a 1-quart casserole. Top with biscuits. Bake 450 degrees about 15 minutes or until biscuits are done. Any left over biscuits should be rolled regular thickness, cut and cooked while casserole is cooking.

Do make plenty of biscuits, you will be glad to have the extra ones with the casserole and also for dessert with your favorite jam, jelly or honey.

SPAGHETTI WITH MEATLESS SAUCE

This receipe can be spruced up and added to as much as you like. For me it started out as a vegetable side dish. Then when I had some left over, but really not enough to serve, I added tomato sauce and served it over spaghetti topped with Parmesan cheese.

1 eggplant, peeled and diced
1 can tomatoes (pint jar)
1 medium onion, sliced
1 green pepper, cut in 1" squares
1 or 2 fresh tomatoes if you have them
1 medium size zucchini, peeled and cubed
2 teaspoons sugar
Salt to taste
Generous pinch of Italian Seasoning or ½ teaspoon oregano
¾ teaspoon basil
Dash of Worcestershire Sauce
1 teaspoon seasoned salt
2 tablespoons margarine

Combine all ingredients except seasoning, in heavy saucepan, bring to a boil, then lower heat and simmer about 40 minutes until mixture begins to thicken. Add herbs and seasoning the last 10 minutes of cooking time.

Serve over spagetti and sprinkle with Parihesan cheese.
