Kay's Kitchen

I did promise more economical dishes this year. Have been going through my various files and hope these will please some one and try to think of things facing people who live alone are needless, illness, disappointments and hard to make decisions, feeling no love company.
One of the best things to prevent these things is to keep busy and try to be friends to others who live alone.
The members have added something extra to their meeting. Each one gave some helpful information by asking "Did You Know That."
The club adjourned until Oct. 5 at the library.
All persons are welcomed as members regardless of race, creed, or religion.

Miranda Homemakers
The first meeting of the 1979-80 year was held at the home of Mrs. Willis Laver with 17 members attending. Three of whom were new members. Dorothy Sunday, Frances Taylor and Mrs. Dorsey Watkins.
Devotional was given by Mrs. Walter Alexander.
Mrs. Reynolds Allison, president, presided. She also gave the Devotional. The roll call was answered by singing, exact date to be announced later.
Mrs. Margie Wilson reminded members to give envelopes for Sept. 20 for the area meeting to be held in Powell County. Mrs. Wilson gave some good remedies for joint aches. Dessert was served by the hostess.
Mrs. Harold Carter invited the club to have its next meeting at her home at 5 p.m. Oct. 10. The lesson will be Italian Foods.
All are invited to join the club regardless of race, creed, or color.
