Horse park plans music

Country music fans can stamp their feet to live music such as "Rocky Top," "Good-Hearted Woman" and "Whiskey River" during the Country Music Festival Aug. 17 at the Kentucky Horse Park.

The festival will include four Country music groups beginning at 3 p.m. with the One Creek Club from Hardin Valley. The girls will perform country favorites on the banjo, fiddle, guitar and stand-up bass.

The original group was the first all-female country band and performed at the White House for President Franklin Roosevelt. The Bailey Brothers Band from Columbia will follow at 4 p.m. Band member Danny Bailey brings expertise to the music with his Nashville recording studio experience.

Two Lexington bands featuring songs from country "outlaws" Waylon Jennings and Willie Nelson will complete the program.

The newly-formed Larry Redman Band, which plays at the Holiday Inn North, will perform at 5 p.m. Group leader Larry Redman is currently working on an album scheduled for release later this year.

From 6 to 8 p.m. the Breeding's Church will play their repertoire of the Oak Ridge Boys, Charlie Daniels, and Wayne and Willie. They have played for the past seven years at the Eastland Bowling Lanes and are now recording in Nashville.
