Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

Yes, I do have more zucchini recipes using this versatile vegetable in non-vegetable ways.

Normally I do a "Labor Day" column at this time, but since there were so many requests for the use of zucchini, thought I had better comply. However, you can take these zucchini cookies to your Labor Day picnic.

ZUCCHINI DROP COOKIES

1 cup grated zucchini
1 teaspoon soda
1 cup sugar
½ cup margarine
1 egg
2 cups flour
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ground cloves
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup raisins

Mix together first 5 ingredients. Sift in flour and spices, stirring to blend. Stir in nuts and raisins. Drop by teaspoonfuls on greased cookie sheet. Bake at 375 degrees about 12 to 15 minutes.

ZUCCHINI PARTY COOKIES

¾ cup butter or margarine
1½ cups sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1½ cups grated zucchini
2½ cups flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup chopped nuts, your choice
1 cup semi-sweet chocolate pieces

Cream butter and sugar. Beat in egg and vanilla; mix in zucchini. Stir in flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Stir in nuts and chocolate pieces. Drop by teaspoonfull onto greased cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for about 15 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool on wire rack. Sift powdered sugar over cookies.

ZUCCHINI OATMEAL MUFFINS

1½ cups unsifted flour
1 cup oatmeal
2½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 egg
⅓ cup vegetable oil
3 tablespoons unsulphured molasses
½ cup grated zucchini
¼ cup chopped nuts

Preheat oven to 425 degrees.

In large bowl stir together the dry ingredients. Make a well in the center and add the combined milk, egg, oil and molasses. Mix just until combined. Gently stir in zucchini and nuts. Fill greased muffin tins almost full. Bake about 15 to 20 minutes or until done. Makes 12 muffins. Serve hot.

Remember in making muffins it is important not to beat the batter, since it will make the muffins tough and ruin the texture.

*****

Remember you can freeze zucchini. There is a change in texture, but will make delicious casseroles and souffles.

Actually this vegetable is at its best about the size of a cucumber. When it gets larger the seeds are tougher and it may be necessary to peel it. The larger ones are good for breads, cakes, cookies and many other dishes.

Club members enjoy music

The Carlisle Garden Club met Monday, August 18 at the Baptist Church for the regular monthly meeting. Mrs. Lena Williams, president, welcomed members and visitors.

Miss Ernestine Eades gave the devotional, the subject "Love," reading from 1st Corinthians, chapter 13, followed by prayer.

Mrs. Cleary Fightmaster delighted the audience with piano music using the theme, "The Art of Piano Music in the Past and the Present."

She played numbers from Beethoven, Chopin, Brahms, Liszt, Sinding, McDowell and ended with some modern numbers. Then as a compliment to what we had done for her, she closed with "You Light Up My Life."

The hostesses, Mrs. Ray Flora and Mrs. Joe Smart, served punch and individual cakes.

Mrs. Jimmy Ray Sadler

Miss Hamilton is summer bride

Miss Lona Katherine Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Hamilton, and Jimmy Ray Sadler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sadler, were united in marriage Saturday, July 26, 1980 at 2 p.m. at the Carlisle Baptist Church. The Rev. Mark Prevo officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with white daisies, white tapers in brass candelabra with white streamers and the matching arch.

Miss Lisa Ann Kouns of Portsmouth, Ohio was the pianist and soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white quiana. The bodice was softly gathered with a lace yoke that extended over the shoulders to make the cap sleeves. The high neckline, yoke and chapel length train were trimmed in lace. She wore a mantella veil of the same lace trimmed in a contrasting lace. She carried a nosegay of silk peach roses and white daisies tied with peach streamers.

Mrs. Kathy Hilander, cousin of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a floor length gown of peach quiana. She carried a bouquet of peach roses and daisies tied with peach streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Kim Blevins of Lexington and Miss Donna Lindsey of Morgantown. They wore gowns identical to the matron of honor and each carried a long stem peach rose and daisies with peach streamers.

Brandi Doyle, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a floor length peach floral gown. Gary Berry, nephew of the groom, served as ring bearer.

Billy Darrell served as best man. The ushers were Jeff Jolly and Gary Hamilton, brother of the bride.

A reception was held in the church basement following the wedding. Mrs. Herbert Duncan, Mrs. Edgar Scott, Mrs. Danny Booth, Mrs. Bill Wright, Mrs. Mike Hamilton and Mrs. Larry Humphries assisted in serving.
