THE CARING CORNER

I Corinthians 13:1 "If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong."

They sat across the table from one another eating a dinner that she had meticulously prepared. Subtlely, she put down her fork and asked her husband, "Do I make you happy?" He continued eating and gave no reply. Again she pleaded, "After ten years of marriage do I still make you happy?" He looked up at her, nodded his head and grunted in the affirmative without missing a bite. She slowly turned from the table and broke down crying.

We need to know that we are important and that someone cares about us and needs us. A grunt over dinner does not confirm this to the other person. Why not take some time this week and tell your spouse that she or he still makes you happy?

Remember, Christmas is a season when we remind ourselves that God took some time to tell us that he loves us.

Join us this Sunday in our Concert Series as the Flemingsburg Christian Church presents the cantata, "First Christmas" at 3:00.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the first of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off the list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

XMAS PACKAGES

Mailing Christmas gift packages can be expensive if you don't know all the options. Here's a rundown on what's available.

If you use U.S. Mail, send printed matter and merchandise—if less than 1 lb. — by third class. It's a lot cheaper than first class, but slower. Allow three weeks. Rates start at 20 cents for 2 oz. or less, goes up to $1.15 for 14 to 16 oz. Over 16 oz. you pay parcel post rates.

Parcel post, which is 4th class mail, can take eight days coast to coast. Rates vary with the weight of the package and the distance. The heavier the package and the longer the distance, the lower the cost per lb. For example: $3.39 for 5 lb. coast to coast; $10.06 for 35 lb.

Then there is United Parcel Service. There's a pickup charge (for which you must call 24 hours in advance), but if you live near a UPS office you can bring the package in yourself. Restrictions: nothing over 150 lb., no more than 108 in. in total length and girth. You get automatic insurance for $100, at no charge, whereas the U.S. Postal Service charges $1.10 for $100 insurance. UPS coast to coast charge for 5 lb. is $2.70 — a saving of about 68 cents over parcel post.

Postal service priority mail — packages 12 oz. to 70 lb. — costs $2.25 for a 1-lb. package New York to Los Angeles, 5 lb. for $4.83. The UPS Blue Label Air Service costs $1.99 for 1 lb. coast to coast, $5.77 for 5 lb.

REA Express ships by rail and air. Insurance is included in the fee. Federal Express, if you're in a hurry, says it will pickup in the afternoon, deliver before noon the next day. Saturday delivery costs $8 extra. Cost of a Courier Pak 2-lb envelope is $19; cost of a box, 5 lb. or less, is $24.

THE HOME GAME
BY VIRGINIA TRUAX

HOLIDAY POLISH — Add a bottle of colorless nail polish to your list of requirements for mailing packages. Just brush some over the label and protect it from snow, rain or sleet.

A PENNY SAVED — Leftover yarn can save you a bundle on Christmas ribbon. It ties a package prettily and makes a soft, floppy bow or pom-pom.

FABULOUS FINALE — Frozen cheesecake can be made into a company dessert for the holidays with this cranberry-mince sauce. Blend 3 tablespoons mince meat with 2 tablespoons pecans, 1 tablespoon brandy and ¼ cup whole cranberry sauce. Heat thoroughly to mix, cool, then top cheesecake with this delectable seasonal treat.

DOUBLE DUTY — That ordinary little soda-can opener is a handy item to have in your tool kit. It doubles as a tack puller and can prier.

HEAVEN SCENT — Stepping from the cold into a home where the perfumed fragrance of pine, bayleaf and cinnamon greet you immediately puts guests in a festive mood. Be sure to light all perfumed candles an hour before party time.

HOT AIR — Adhesive-backed paper used to line drawers and shelves often defies the easy removal suggested in instructions. But one swift way to STRIP the peeling process is to hold your hair dryer over the area. Concentrate on the corners. As it warms the adhesive, gently pull it loose. Works well on large wall areas, too.

JINGLE BELLS — A quickie decoration to knit in a jiffy. Using bright red 4-ply yarn and size 4 needles, cast on 14 stitches, knit first row and purl; knit 10 on second row; repeat these 2 rows until 24 ridges are completed. Two rows make one ridge. Bind off, leaving 12-inch tail. Thread yarn through needle, sew up sides and gather top stitches to form ball. Pull through center and attach small ball.
