

Parents' training session set

All parents of Title I children are invited to attend a Parents' Training Session at 1 p.m. on Dec. 17 at the Nicholas County Elementary School. The purpose of the session will be to show the parents how they may help their children in reading and math skills at home. The teachers will work with the parents in making games and teaching aids which the parents can use at home. All Title I parents and other interested persons are invited to attend this workshop. For further information contact Bill Gutrie, Title I coordinator at the Nicholas County Board of Education.

Center to close

The Nicholas County Community Action Center will be closed on Dec. 25 and 26 for Christmas and again on Jan. 1 and 2 for New Year's.

Weekly earning increase

The Department for Human Resources reports that average weekly earnings of Kentucky production workers in the manufacturing industries was $294 in September 1980, an increase of 7.5 percent over the weekly average pay earned in the same month last year.
