Kay's Kitchen

— By Kay Fisher —

Summertime is salad time. A generous salad can make a meal, either lunch or supper. Serve with slices of homemade bread and a light dessert for a complete meal. Don't just serve a congealed salad, fruit salad or the conventional tossed salad. Use your imagination and relish be creative. Start out by using two or more greens as a base. Don't be tied to "head lettuce". Think of all the vegetables you like, and think of them cold. Most vegetables are just as tasty, or more so served cold with a dressing of your choice. Some need to be cooked, such as cauliflower, mushrooms, spinach, carrots, broccoli, the list goes on. So make a combination of vegetables, add cubes of cold cooked meat, quartered hard-boiled eggs, tomatoes, etc. Add dressing of your choice.

For fruit salads use canned fruits or fresh. Use several different fruits, add sticks of cheese, nuts, celery, etc. Anything tasty to extend the salad and make it filling. Nut breads are good served with fruit salads. These salads of course must be assembled at meal time. But if you have in your head the combinations you want to use, they will not take long. Always keep in mind the salad is going to be the one dish meal.

There are salads that are frozen, jellied or marinated that can be made well in advance. Most of these salads will need garnishes to make them more filling, so keep the garnish compatible.

For marinated salads start out with a good marinade and you can add most any vegetable to it and it will be good. Here is one to keep in mind.

SALAD MARINADE

1 cup vinegar
1 cup sugar
½ cup salad oil
1 teaspoon dry mustard
Salt and pepper to taste

Combine all ingredients and heat just enough to dissolve the sugar.

*****

To the marinade given you may add:
2 cans french cut beans, drained
1 can party peas, drained
½ cup diced celery
6 fresh green onions, sliced
1 small jar cut pimientos

Refrigerate overnight. Keeps well. Quartered tomatoes and hard cooked eggs make a good garnish and extender. Serve on fresh lettuce or spinach.

*****

To the marinade given add:
1 pound fresh mushrooms, or
2 6 or 8-ounce cans whole mushrooms, drained
2 cups sliced carrots, cooked 6 minutes
1 clove garlic, minced
1 large green pepper cut in strips
1 large sweet onion, cut into rings
Salt and pepper to taste

Refrigerate overnight or several days before using.

ASPARAGUS ASPIC SALAD

2 3-ounce packages lemon flavored gelatin
4 cups vegetable juice cocktail
¼ cup chopped celery
½ cup sliced stuffed olives
1 cup tender cooked asparagus pieces, or canned green asparagus, drained
1 tablespoon vinegar

Heat 2 cups juice to simmering, add gelatin, stir to dissolve. Stir in remaining juice. Chill until mixture is syrupy. Mix in remaining ingredients, and pour into 6 or 8 cup mold. Chill until firm. Serve on lettuce with your favorite dressing. To make the salad more filling you may serve with it sliced tomatoes, cheese sticks, hard cooked eggs and your choice of bread or crackers.

OLIVE-CELERY SALAD

Heat 1 can tomato soup. Add 1 tablespoon gelatin, soaked in ¼ cup cold water. Cool slightly and beat in 3-ounce package cream cheese, ½ cup mayonnaise, 1 cup finely chopped celery, 1 cup sliced green stuffed olives, salt and grated onion to taste. Pour into individual molds. Serve on bed of lettuce.

Baptist Church to show film

No Longer Alone, winner of three prestigious film-industry awards, will be shown on Sunday, July 6, at First Baptist Church, Carlisle. The showing, open to the public free of charge, is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

The film, a true story, takes a close look at a woman who was searching desperately for love and acceptance, but whose cries went unheard by those who surrounded her.

Originally released by World Wide Pictures in commercial theatres, the film is now one hour in length in preparation for its eventual presentation as a television special.

No Longer Alone traces the life of an English actress, Joan Winmill Brown. Though she skyrocketed to fame on the British stage, her life was marked by a frantic grasp for personal fulfillment and love. Tormented by a past she was unable to forget, she succumbed to a series of nervous breakdowns; and, at one point, attempted to take her own life.
