Miss Lee Dudley

Lee Dudley is runner-up in state beauty pageant

Miss Lee Dudley was third runner-up to the new Miss Kentucky National Teenager crowned at Georgetown College Saturday, June 14.

Seventy-four state finalists from all areas of the state competed for this title in a three-day pageant which began with orientation on Friday afternoon and was followed by speech competition that evening.

Personal interviews and practice sessions were held for the contestants throughout the day Saturday. The final competition began at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at Georgetown College auditorium when the girls were judged in evening gowns.

At the close of the competition 15 semi-finalists were chosen from the group of 74 contestants. The five finalists were then chosen from this group of semi-finalists.

The new 1980 Miss Kentucky National Teenager was Paula Gill from Middlesboro, who will represent this state in the National Pageant in Fort Myers, Florida in August.

Lee Dudley, 15, was one of the youngest contestants in the pageant. She has recently been named to the 1980-81 McAlpins Teen Board in Lexington, Kentucky. Many activities are being planned for the Teen Board which will begin with various workshops. She will be modeling for McAlpins of Turfland Mall throughout the year.

Miss Dudley was one of six girls selected from high schools outside of Lexington.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Dudley of Carlisle.

JUNE IS STILL DAIRY MONTH

Because grazing cows produced more milk in June, National Milk Month was launched in 1937 to sell more dairy products. The first promotion period ran from June 13 to July 10, 1937. But by 1939, the entire month of June was used to "celebrate" June Dairy Month. It became a national campaign to remind consumers of the importance of dairy foods in the family diet.

Recipes this week are from the United Dairy Industry Association.

BURGER BONANZA

1¼ pounds ground beef
½ cup dry bread crumbs
½ cup milk
¼ cup chopped onions
1½ teaspoons salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
8 hamburger buns

Combine meat, crumbs, milk and seasonings; mix lightly. Shape into 8 patties. Broil or grill to desired doneness. Spread buns, as desired, with:

BUTTER-BLUE CHEESE SPREAD

½ cup butter
¼ cup crumbled Blue Cheese
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce

Combine softened butter, Blue Cheese and Worcestershire sauce; mix until well blended. Makes approximately ¾ cup.

CHEESE-RELISH SPREAD

2 packages (3-oz. each) cream cheese
¼ cup pickle relish
1 tablespoon prepared mustard

Combine softened cream cheese, pickle relish and mustard; mix until well blended. Makes approximately 1 cup.

CHILI-CHEESE SPREAD

1 cup (4-oz.) shredded Cheddar cheese
½ cup chili sauce

Combine ingredients. Makes approximately 1 cup.

CHEESE-OLIVE SPREAD

½ cup dairy sour cream
½ cup shredded Brick cheese
¼ cup chopped pimiento-stuffed olives

Combine ingredients. Makes approximately 1 cup.

Homemakers meet

Moorefield

The Moorefield Homemakers held their June meeting in the home of Mrs. Marium Williams with Mrs. Jimmy Conrad as co-hostess.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Brenda Lawrence, president. The devotional, "The Tongue is Afire," was given by Mrs. Beulah Jacobs. The roll was called answering with a dairy recipe using cheese. There were 11 in attendance. The minutes were read and approved. Calendars were filled out.

The cultural arts camp was announced October 3-4. We need two teachers. The hospital dinner at Forest Retreat in June 28. Puddings should be left with Mrs. Lovell Shaw. Workers are needed to work at food trailer, Cynthiana, July 11. Contact the office. There was no further business and Mrs. Brenda Lawrence, our leader, gave a very interesting lesson on planning a basic wardrobe, with a slide presentation of fashions from Sears. A social hour followed.

Our annual picnic will be held Thursday, July 10 at Blue Licks State Park.

Carlisle West

Thirteen members of the Carlisle West Homemakers Club had a carried-in luncheon with Mrs. J.A. Hamilton as hostess on Friday, June 13.

The lesson, "Basic Wardrobe", was given by Mrs. Margie Wilson, home agent. Roll call was answered with naming a dairy food. The minutes were read and the treasurer's report given. The thought for the day from James 3 was "bridling of the tongue."

Reports on reading, canning and freezing, sewing and recycling during May were given. The Family Life Newsletter concerning the film "Kramer vs. Kramer, was also read by Mrs. Wilson. Leaflets entitled "Putting It All Together" about line, form, color and texture and the principles of design, proportion, balance and emphasis were passed around.

Hostesses and lessons for 1980-81 were chosen; also the thought for the day.

The Extension Homemaker Clubs are open to all regardless of race, color, sex, age, handicap or national origin.

Headquarters

The Headquarters Homemakers met June 10 with Mrs. Russell Alexander for their annual picnic. Mrs. Reynolds Allison presided. The devotional, "The Tongue Is A Fire" was given by Mrs. W.W. Cook. Fifteen members answered the roll call with "My favorite dairy food."

The chairmen for the different committees were appointed by the president. The club was asked to give puddings for the hospital dinner June 20. The family life lesson was given by Mrs. W.W. Cook. Mrs. Lester Snapp gave the lesson on the basic wardrobe.

Mrs. Paul Donovan became a new member. Mrs. George Dale and Mrs. James Snapp were in charge of recreation. The meeting adjourned until September.

Miranda

The home of Mrs. Edgar Scott was the scene of our June meeting of the Miranda Homemakers, attended by 23 members and one guest, Mrs. Henry Schallert from Minnesota.

Our outgoing president, Mrs. Lovell Shaw, called the meeting to order. Alma Atkinson gave the devotional based on James' epistle on restraining our tongues. Club chairmen for the 1980-81 year were appointed by the new officers. Mrs. Scott invited all to the dairy meeting at the elementary school June 26. Registration is at 7 p.m.

Margie Wilson said there will be a field day July 16 at the Westgate Farms located near the traffic island at highway 68 and there will be a picnic to be served. Mrs. Dorsey Watkins gave the lesson on basic wardrobe, assisted by Mrs. Wilson showing slides. Mrs. Albert Vice led us in recreation. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Edgar A. Darrell invited all the members and their families to a potluck dinner at their farm on Whetstone Road July 10 at 6:30 p.m.

THE CARING CORNER

Matthew 5:9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God."

It just dawned on me that God is my father-in-law! Since God made each of us in his image, then he made my wife. And, if my wife believes in Him that makes her one of His children, more specifically a daughter. Well, I married her so that means that I married God's daughter. That's a heavy load!! Life for me takes on a different perspective now. How do I treat God's daughter? I guess in a way it's a great privilege to have her in my life. You might say God has loaned her to me for a while. This motivates me to help her grow and become the best spouse that she can be. I feel like expending all my efforts to please her. The problem is, when I do she returns that love and then I GROW . I used to think that if I told her everything that was wrong with her that she would improve and grow, but she didn't. She grows with my help. Amazing! Are you married to God's daughter or son?

Readers write about BGI—union dispute

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I first started work for this company in March 1949 in a converted garage with just a few employees.

We have come a long way up the ladder since then and without the help of a union. And all the benefits that have been added through the years have already been mentioned in other letters to the Mercury. No union did this for us.

I for one am thankful for my job here at home, not having to drive a long way from home to work. As for having someone to be my spokesman, the Lord has given me a voice and I've always been able to go to my employers and talk to them about anything. I believe I will always have this privilege as long as I work at Blue Grass Industries.

I won't have to pay any dues to do this either. Our community needs this company, so let's say No if someone asks you to sign a union card. As long as Wayne and Carrie Shumate's name is signed on my paycheck I'll consider them as my boss.

Read your Bible Matthew 20:1-14 about the labor dispute they had in Jesus, our Lord's day. Thank you for letting us make our views known.

Clarine Finch

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I'd like to thank you for this opportunity to express my opinion on the issue of a union at Blue Grass. I work at the Knitting plant and used to work at the Industries plant and I know from experience there is no better place to work. Few places will be any cleaner or have any better facilities.

Anyone can speak for themselves and not pay a union to do this for them. I also feel it is unfair to force the people who do not want the union to pay dues they do not vote for. We work for our money and deserve to spend it the way we want to. The people who don't have the guts to speak for themselves don't have the right to force it on everyone else.

I say we should all stick behind Blue Grass and show them we appreciate what they have done for us and our community.

Shirley Trussell

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I would like to take the opportunity to let you know some things. I have worked there (BGI) for almost a year and I have worked under several supervisors and been on different jobs. The working conditions are not any good simply because we don't have any protection from things [needles, parts of the machines, etc.] flying in our faces or eyes. Some employees say that the union cannot benefit BGI. Well, I just gave you an example of what they can help us do.

Since some people don't know what the union is, how should they know how to make their minds unless they hear both sides? Look people, don't let OVER HEADS make your mind up for you. Do it yourself. That's your right. Give the union a better chance to help you and your family.

Thank you,
Carolina Fryman

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I work at Blue Grass Industries. I have been there off and on for the past 15 years. I have worked under several supervisors and I have done several different operations, but I have never before gone to the bath room and somebody look at me like I was mad.

I never had anyone not speak to me until now. I have to be on one side or the other. I thought this was a free country. Then if it is free I have the right to do what I want for a change.

Freda Treadway

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I am a young girl of 21 and need my job real bad. Like other employees I have three small children and am unmarried, so you can see how bad I need my job. I'm not going to let them scare me with their threats. I have a mind of my own, but it's awful hard sometimes to express it.

The Anti-Union can do whatever they like, but let us try to do what we think is right.

Like the others I don't really care about more money. I would just like to go in at 7:30 and know where I'm going to be working. When I start making good money on one job I get changed to something else. Now tell me how I'm supposed to take care of my kids on $3.10 an hour. Ask yourself. Could you? So if I can chance losing my job for "Union", why can't you? Think about it.

Rhonda Watkins

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I would like to take the opportunity to say a few words. They say that the United Food and Commercial Workers will not help us a bit. They surely can't hurt. Do you know why Carlisle is a small community? I can tell you. It's because other factories and merchants have been kept out by the big wheels of Carlisle.

I was asked the other day why I worked at BGI if I didn't like it. What choice do I have unless I want to drive several miles. So please think about this.

Pat Frederick

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I have been at Blue Grass Industries in Carlisle for seven years and I have never in my life been treated any worse than I am now. I have been suspended twice for made-up deals. Girls that have been my friends for years are now turning against me for standing up for something I believe in.

We are getting pushed around, not allowed to talk to anybody. I have been in the front office and been talked to like I was dirt on the floor. I am a free person. Just like all of you, but do you have the right to stand up for what you believe in? Just look at your pay checks and tell me if you're getting what you are worth for.

I think everybody should listen to both sides, before they make up their minds. You have a mind of your own. Use it.

Linda Evans

To The Carlisle Mercury:

As an employee of Blue Grass Industries, I'm taking this opportunity to ask how we would benefit by working under a union when this company has operated successfully for more than 30 years without one.

In that time there have been very few layoffs, and to my knowledge, the plant has never shut down except for vacation. I've certainly never heard anyone complain about that.

I couldn't ask for steadier work than I've had during the 16 years I've worked here.

I believe we would lose a lot more in union dues and initiation fees than we would gain by "voting union."

So I think we had better think twice and count our blessings before we, like the dog in the story, "grasp at the shadow and lose the real thing."

Edith Tolson

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I have worked at Blue Grass Industries for 11 years nine months. I don't believe we need a union. We have the best fringe benefits going. Matter of fact we have better benefits than factories that have a union. The only thing a union is going to do is take your money for dues, put you on strike.

When you are on strike how do you think you are going to make a living with no income?

Blue Grassers stop and think what it is going to be like with no weekly check coming to you?

If you will only stop and think you will say "No union for Blue Grass Industries. We don't need it."

Sandra Howard

To The Carlisle Mercury:

I have worked at Blue Grass Industries for 15 years. During that 15 years, I have raised a family of five children. I have never missed any work due to lay-off. This within itself speaks well of Blue Grass Industries. I have been treated well by everyone and appreciate my job as I need it to support my family and pay my bills.

I will speak up for Blue Grass Industries and I will also encourage everyone else to do the same. I need all the money I can earn and I sure don't want to give a union any $10 to $15 per month for nothing.

Please everyone speak out on this matter if you believe as I do.

Bennie Morris

To The Carlisle Mercury:

If I misinterpreted the reporter's views on the anti-union meeting I would like to extend my apology. To my understanding, I asked for coverage only, not joining sides. Also, if a reporter couldn't be there, the next morning he could have gotten the information from a reliable source that did attend. Since the Mt. Sterling and Maysville
