Republicans meet this Saturday

The 1980 Presidential campaign officially begins in Kentucky this weekend as the state's half-million Republicans initiate the process through which 27 delegates and alternates to the GOP National Convention will be elected.

Mass conventions open to all registered Republicans will be held in 119 counties at 10 a.m., local time, Saturday, March 15. Jefferson County will hold similar meetings in its 22 legislative districts on Saturday, March 29.

The county mass conventions are being held to elect delegates and alternates to attend Congressional District Conventions April 10-12 and the State Republican Convention at 2 p.m., EST, Saturday, April 12, in Louisville.

Each county is apportioned one delegate for each 200 votes received by the Republican presidential candidate in the 1976 election. A total of 2,653 delegates and the same number of alternates are to be chosen statewide.

Delegates selected this weekend will, in turn, elect three delegates and their alternates at the seven congressional district conventions. Six delegates and alternates at-large will be chosen at the State Convention.

The Nicholas County Republican Mass Convention will be held at 10 a.m. at the Courthouse in Carlisle.

Mrs. James C. Thomas of Edgewood, acting chairman of the Kentucky GOP, expects record participation in the conventions.

"These mass conventions offer an opportunity to all Republicans to make their voices heard not only in the Presidential campaign, but also in the biennial reorganization of the Party here in Kentucky.

"I am confident that Republicans will respond in record numbers and give America new leadership to solve our economic crisis, strengthen our national defense and restore world confidence and respect," Mrs. Thomas said.

In addition to the delegate selection process, state Republicans also will elect party leaders at the precinct, county congressional district and statewide levels between March 15 and April 12.

"Our party is open and vital leadership roles await all Republicans who share our commitment to better government at every level," Mrs. Thomas said.

"Beauty is truth, truth beauty." Keats

Court news correction

In last week's court news the disposition of a case against Eugene Ring for fraudulently receiving unemployment insurance benefits was incorrectly stated.

Ring was found guilty of 11 counts of fraudulently receiving unemployment benefits and was fined $25 on each count for a total fine of $275 plus $20.50 court costs. He was also given 10 days in jail for each count, a total of 110 days, which was probated for one year.

In addition, a restitution hearing has been set for April 1 on the case.

Prior to 1790, Tennessee was just the western section of North Carolina, then ceded to the federal government.

THE CARING CORNER

Luke 22:19 "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Our community is nutrition conscious! We are aware that we "are what we eat". Doctors tell us that many of our illnesses come from poor nutrition, so we visit health food stores and read books on diets. Not only eating the right food but eating the right amount has replaced the weather in our community as the thing to talk about. Everywhere you go somebody is on a diet, or ought to be on a diet! At least they keep talking about it. We're food conscious, nutrition conscious, yet we continue to ignore the most nutritious of all foods! Why? As far as our health and overall well-being are concerned, the most nutritious of all food is the food of the Lord's Supper.

Join us this Sunday as we learn why.
