

Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Foster

I am always glad when someone asks me to write about a specific thing. It can always do it, but it does give me something definite to work on. Sometimes I'm hard put to think of what to do for this column each week, so I thank for the request about crystallized ginger and preserved ginger.

The crystallized ginger is somewhat like our candied orange or grapefruit peel, but much better. Ginger is Oriental in origin, and most of us are familiar with the dried ginger called ground ginger, or you may have part of the whippoo cream to use for garnish.

CANTON FRUIT CUP
 1 can chunk-style pineapple
 2 oranges, peeled, skinned and cut up
 1 banana, peeled, cut in rings
 Flavored ginger candy, minced (1 tablespoon or more, if desired)
 Mix all ingredients. Chill. Divide into 4 sherbet cups. Serve 4.

GINGER DESSERT SAUCE
 2 cups sugar
 1/4 cup boiling water
 1/4 cup minced preserved ginger
 1/4 cup minced candied ginger
 1/4 cup minced preserved ginger
 1/4 cup minced candied ginger
 Carefully stir in water, and ginger. Return to heat. Cook, stirring constantly, until syrup is smooth again. Cool. Pour into clean jars and cover with waxed paper. Store in refrigerator. Serve over ice cream, cake or fruit. Makes 2 1/2 cups. Will keep up to 2 months.

CANDIED GINGER PIE
 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
 1/2 cup sugar, divided
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1 egg, separated
 1/4 cup vanilla
 1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
 1/2 cup sliced, candied ginger
 Gingersnap

Mix together gelatin, 1/4 cup sugar and salt in top of double boiler or saucepan. Beat egg yolks with milk. Stir into gelatin mixture. Cook over boiling water or low heat and cook, stirring until gelatin dissolves and mixture thickens slightly, about 15 minutes. Add vanilla. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds.

Mrs. and Mrs. James R. Anderson

Bussell-Anderson vows exchanged

Miss Martha Charlene Bussell and James R. Anderson were united in marriage March 11, 1980 at the Carlisle Christian Church. Rev. Albert Allen officiated the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Bussell of Carlisle. She is a 1979 graduate of Nicholas County High School and is now employed at the Bluegrass Agency in Paris.

Mr. Anderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Anderson of Carlisle. He is also a 1979 graduate of Nicholas County High School and is engaged in farming.

Poe-Dryden plan wedding
 Mr. and Mrs. Dickie Poe of Route Five, Mayville, announce the engagement of their daughter, Angela Hope, to Victor Blaine Dryden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dryden of Carlisle.

Miss Poe is a 1978 graduate of Mayville High School and is employed at Parker Tobacco Company as a lab technician.

The prospective groom is a 1974 graduate of Denning High School and a 1978 graduate of the University of Kentucky. He is employed by Lorillard Tobacco Company as a market administrator.

THE CARING CORNER
 A small boy was fixing his kite when a neighbor walked up and asked him what he was doing.
 "Fixing a kite," replied the boy.
 "Yes."
 "Well, I can't see any kite."
 "Yeah, but it's there."
 "It is out of sight."
 "Yes."
 "Well, how do you know it is up there?"
 "Master, I can feel it tugging on the line!"
 Optimism: faith is not seeing Jesus, but still feeling him tug on the line.
 Join us this Sunday as we learn how He tugs.

 "My many states a hunting license entails you to one deer and no more."
 "Just like a marriage license."

Garden Club meets
 The Carlisle Garden Club held its March meeting in the club room at the library Monday, March 17, with a St. Patrick's Day luncheon.
