THE CARING CORNER

John 14:16 "And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, to be with you for ever."

A boy showed me a picture of his girl friend, and written on the back were these words—"Dearest Love, I love you more every day and I always will. I know you feel the same way about me. All my love for ever and ever. Sue. P.S. When we break up I want this picture back!"

I wonder how many of us feel this way about our Christian lives. On Sunday morning we say and mean it—"God, I love you for ever and ever. P.S. We are going to break up tomorrow when I have to go to work, because the things that have to do with you don't apply to the way life is lived where I work!" How many P.S.'s do you add when you talk to God?

Join us this Sunday as we celebrate Thanksgiving.

FALL LAWN CARE

This is a good time for putting in a new bed of grass.

First, buy the right kind of seed. Invest in a high quality seed that has glow weed content, no excess inert material and superior, named varieties of the grasses which are suitable to your area and offer the appearance you're looking for.

Plant grass seed well. Grass needs good contact with the soil in order to germinate and take hold. Never toss the seed on hard, bare ground or on top of existing growth. Scratch the soil surface before you plant.

If your lawn area is greater than 10 square feet, you need a precision spreader. Sowing by hand can spread the seed too thin so that a well-knit turf is not established to help shut out weeds. Too heavy seeding can produce too many tiny grass plants competing for nutrients, moisture and light.

The right feeding is also important. Choose a fertilizer that is especially formulated for seedlings, one that has a high phosphorus content, as represented by the middle number on the package. Make sure the upper inch of soil never dries out throughout the first month after planting. Protect your new lawn or newly seeded areas by preventing trampings and removing yard debris and leaves. Mow regularly as soon as it comes up, remove clippings and use a long-acting, high-nitrogen fertilizer about six weeks after planting.
