Bluejackets play well in spite of rain

By Peggy Stewart and Meg Conley With 52 seconds left on the clock and Raceland leading Nicholas County 13-6, the Bluejackets scored a touchdown but stopped short of a win Friday night when the run for extra points failed. [Saceland returned home with a 13-12 gave up and kept the second of much to my father's dispirate. By the way, I recently came across a picture taken beside the Carlide Christian Church showing at least 50 or more children in the Sunday School together with Mary Frances Figher, two or three other teachers, and my parents, Effecthewan and Rev. Henry W. Schwan. It occurred to me. Rev. Henry W. Schwan. It occurred to me that it might be something you might like to put in the Mercury some week. Most of the children were around four to six years old, and the picture was taken around 1928. If you would like it, I would be glad to send you acopy. It might be interesting for your readers to see if they could recognize any of them. If a about 7 s. 9 biw glossy. All good without.
