Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

About two weeks ago I received this note: "A friend of mine sent me the recipe for Kay's Kitchen. I thought you might like to add a bit of wild international flavor to your column!"

So I've I would I'm open to anything, almost.

Elephant stew
1 medium sized elephant rabbits (about 10)
Flour, salt, pepper and water to taste

Little butter twists
3 cups cookie mix
3 egg yolks, beaten
Few drops milk

Blend ingredients, then add butter and blend in mixer until mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Check bottom of bowl for unmixed ingredients.
This will make about 10 cups of mix.

When eggs are called for use large eggs, not extra large or jumbo.

Combine cookie mix and egg yolks. If needed add a drop or two of milk one at a time to make dough easy to handle. If dough is too soft add more mix. If difficult to handle, chill.

Break off 1 level teaspoon, no more, of dough. Roll between floured hands until 1/4 inch in diameter and finger shaped. Put dough on ungreased baking sheet to form letters S or O or leave some about 2 inches long. Allow space between cookies to raise slightly.

Beat egg white with water and brush over cookies. Mix almonds and sugar and sprinkle on cookies. Bake in preheated 325 degree oven for about 10 minutes until lightly browned. Makes about 120 cookies.

SEED OR NUT COOKIES
1 large egg white
2 cups cookie mix
1 large egg yolk

Scrape seeds or chopped nuts from egg shells and thoroughly. Shape into 1/4-inch balls. Roll in sesame seeds or finely chopped nuts of your choice.

Put on ungreased baking sheet and bake in preheated 350 degree oven for about 8 minutes. Cool and store in airtight container. Makes about 48 cookies.

More next week.

THE CARING CORNER
On this rock I will build my church, and the powers of death shall not prevail against it.

Matthew 16:18 "And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the powers of death shall not prevail against it."

When we start a new Sunday School class that will be a discussion class dealing with relevant topics concerning us here as our community. Are you interested in sharing your ideas and opinions with God's Word? Why not come
