Snack contest Oct. 6

There will be a Nutrition Snack Contest held at the Nicholas County Health Fair on Oct. 6 at the Nicholas County Elementary School gym. Anyone in the community is eligible to enter.

Food items must be fresh and belong to the fruit, vegetable or whole grain family. Entries will be limited to food low in salt, fat and sugar. Each entry must be accompanied by its recipe. Any breads must be brought on a cutting board with a cutting knife. Items to be refrigerated must be wrapped and identified. All foods should be brought to the Nicholas County Elementary School gym the morning of the Health Fair. Baking will begin at 12:30 p.m. Factors to be considered in judging include color, texture, taste, nutrient content and originality. There will be prizes awarded in each of the three categories. In addition every entrant will receive a gift compliment of the Health Fair committee.

Completed entry forms must be received prior to the Health Fair. Entry forms can be picked up at the Nicholas County Health Center. For more information call Margaret Cook-Stewart, nutritionist at the Nicholas County Health Center. Call 289-2118 on any Tuesday.

KET special tonight

Continued from page 3 moderated by Minneapolis Tribune Editor Charles Bailey, the program contains entertaining and anecdotal material, including the journalists' recounting of their biggest story and the most memorable personality they covered. The three journalists, who grew up and began their careers in St. Paul/Minneapolis, comment on how their midwestern roots have affected them.

"Three American Reporters" was endorsed with some surprising predictions about the big news stories of the next five years.

"Three American Reporters" is a production of KTCB-TV, St. Paul/Minneapolis.

Philippians 4:4 "Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice."

Be depressed lately? Maybe you had a reason or maybe you just feel the long blue for the day. If you are depressed, you know that there are some people who you have to avoid in order to stay depressed. You know if you talk to this person, they have such a joyful attitude that it ruins your planned "day of depression."

Why is it that some people can be joyful most of the time? Obviously, we say that they are just crazy, but inwardly, we are quite envious. I'll even bet that if the truth were known and we were not so defensive that we would like to know their secret of happiness. Many Christians do not know the "secret" of happiness and are eager to share it. So, the next time you want to be depressed for the whole day, please stay away from people like Joy and Gony because these Christians have a joyful attitude that will change your day and they may even tell you their "secret."

Join us Sunday as we discuss the "secret" of happiness.
