Kay's Kitchen

By Kay Fisher

My friends who know, tell me there is nothing much left in gardens now except green tomatoes, peppers, turnip greens, sweet potatoes and the like. Too soon to start in on cushaw and winter squash, so will give you a few recipes for green tomatoes.

As for the green peppers, they are wonderful to have frozen to use during the winter. Just split in half, take the seeds out and freeze. They are good for anything calling for peppers cooked, or for stuffing. They will not be good for anything needing the crispness of fresh peppers.

GREEN TOMATO PIE

Pastry for 2 crust pie
3 medium tart apples
2 cups sliced green tomatoes
1 cup sugar (half white and half brown is good)
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon allspice
2 scant tablespoons flour
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 tablespoons margarine
1 tablespoon melted butter or cream

Preheat oven to 450 degrees. Prepare pastry and use half to line a 9-inch pie pan. Peel and core apples and cut into ½-inch slices. Slice tomatoes same thickness. In a large bowl combine sugar, spices and flour. Mix lightly, then gently mix in tomatoes, apples and lemon juice.

Fill pie shell with this mixture, dot with bits of margarine. Add top crust, cut in several places. Crimp edges, brush with melted butter or cream. Bake about 15 minutes at 450 degrees or until crust is golden, then reduce heat to 350 degrees for about 45 to 50 minutes. Cover crust lightly if it begins to brown too much.

NOODLES WITH GREEN TOMATOES

6 green tomatoes
8 ounces noodles, thin
6 tablespoons olive oil
3 tablespoons margarine
Flour, salt, pepper
Grated cheese

Slice tomatoes about ½ inch thick. Combine flour, salt and pepper. In large skillet heat the olive oil, dredge tomato slices in flour mixture, saute the slices in the oil until brown, turn and brown other side. Tomatoes should be fork tender. Keep warm.

Have noodles cooked according to directions on package. Drain and toss with margarine and add more salt and pepper if needed.

Serve noodles on warm plate and top with the warm tomato slices, using three or four slices per serving. Sprinkle with the grated cheese.

Since olive oil has become so expensive, I have sauteed the tomatoes in vegetable oil. You may even use bacon drippings but the taste will not be quite the same, but good.

GREEN TOMATO RELISH

4 quarts chopped green tomatoes
2 quarts chopped cabbage, about 1 large head
2 cups chopped sweet red peppers
1 cup chopped onion
½ cup salt
4½ cups vinegar
1½ cups brown sugar, packed
2 tablespoons mustard seed
1 tablespoon celery seed
1 tablespoon prepared horseradish

Sprinkle salt over vegetables and mix thoroughly; let stand 3 to 4 hours. Drain thoroughly. Press to remove additional liquid. Add sugar, spices and horseradish to vinegar. Simmer 15 minutes. Add vegetables and heat to a boil. Pack, boiling hot, into hot canning jars, leaving 1/8 inch headspace. Adjust caps and process in a boiling water bath 10 minutes. Makes about 7 pints.
