

Easter Seal Camps plan for '81 sessions

Parents hoping to send a handicapped child to an Easter Seal resident camp this summer were urged to find out now the dates of appropriate sessions by Gail Miller, Louisville, executive director of the Kentucky Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

The agency operates Camp Kyroc at Carrollton and Camp Green Shores at McDaniels in Breckinridge County, Miller reports.

We would like to see any handicapped child be deprived of a camping experience because the application cause to take," he said.

At Camp Green Shores the camping sessions begin June 14 and continue to August 4. Camping periods begin May 31 and run to July 29 at Camp Kyroc.

Camping programs are planned to give children and adults on the basis of age and kind of impairment or handicap, Miller reported.

Last year, the camp brought 137 handicapped children and adults, he said.

Parents or others interested in registering a child for camp or in need of more information may contact the camping department, Kentucky Easter Seal Society, 231 East Broadway, Louisville, Ky. 40202.
