Opinion

School's opening reminds us to watch driving habits

With Nicholas County's schools opening the 1961-62 school year next week, we are reminded of the smilling faces of hundreds of our children laughing and playing, stiffy modeling new school clothes, and renewing acquaintances after a long

But those smiling faces could suddenly be shattered by one careless motorist. We only wish to remind all area adults to carefully observe all posted speed limits in school zone areas, and to take special care when following a school bus to or from school.

Since elementary age children generally do not recognize or comprehend the potential danger involved in entering or crossing a roadway, they often dart out in front of vehicles, or cross streets without looking. Please be particularly alert for without looking. Please be particularly alert for these children.

The Blue Grass AAA Automobile Gub says that although the 55 million students in the United States between the ages of 5 and 14 represent about 15 percent of the total population; they are involved in almost 35 percent of the annual pedestrian accidents. Accident with a small child. To be involved in almost 35 percent of the annual pedestrian accidents. Accident with a small child. The properties of the child or the driver will ever be able to forget. We urge all local motorists to be especially mindful of the increased bearrds to be school year places on our outly's readways. We all want to keep the smiles on our children's faces.

All are diminished with The Star's fall

For understandable reasons, journalists are especially saddened by the demise of a great newspaper. So, the announcement that the Washington Star ceased publication on Aug. 7 after 130 years of distinguished service to its readers casts a particularly somber pall of gloom wer those of us in the news business The Star succumbed to the inexerable logic of the balance sheet, which showed losses of roughly $20 million per year since the late 1970s. Even $20 million per year since the late 1970s. Even Time, Inc., the Star's owner since 1978, could not overcome economic adversity on this scale, nor justify such losses indefinitely.

The Star weged a magnificent fight to the very end. Its pages crackled with first-rate reporting, Herems and contended by the Corporation of the Contended crisp writing, and discerning commentary. New features and editions were added regularly to attract readers, and advertisers.

It wasn't enough. In the end, the once-dominant Star could not win back a sufficient share of its advertising market to survive against the honeyly profitable Washington Pointside by Joses and the party profitable Washington Pointside by Joses (The read to survive against the honeyly profitable Washington Pointside by Joses (The read to survive against the honey to repeat the profitable servative voice is being stilled at precisely the time it was most needed to give a measure of balance to coverage of the new administration.

The Idle Rambler

by James C. Smith

At the time of this writing I am both contented and suffering from chronic anxiety at the same time. I'm contented because I'm presently nestled in the rolling hills (or is that towering mountains) of good old West Virginia. Far away the content of the hazards of life as a tournal expresent one of the hazards of life as a tournal or the content of t characteristally represent one us us.

If an a journalist control entrole anxiety because I are a journalist control entrole anxiety because I are a journalist control entrole anxiety and the appearance in the property of the property of

When I look for something, I walk in the first likely store I happen upon, tell a pimply-faced salesboy what I want, he brings it over and I buy it. Simple.

For ner, snopping is an art form. It is-simultaneously—intensely absorbing work and the greatest form of enertainment this side of a trupe of one-legged fenale midget wrestlers wearing pink flourescent bikinis. For any one article she is in search of, a minimum of 9 stores must be ransacked. It doesn't matter that some of the stores carry exactly the same brands with consistently higher than the properties of the stores are properties.

doesn't matter that some of the stores carry exactly the same brands with consistently higher prices, she still tears throught the isless like a fox in a chicken house and proceeds to fill the process of the control of the control of the appears and cumwith replication to appears and cumwith replication to the first store and she invariably must return to the first store we entered to finally purchase the article. I in-variable cumes.

unapproachable for sales persons as is humanly possible. Even when she is looking for only ar-ticle, specifically she will never allow store em-

I'm sure everyone knows what I mean. She'll be looking for a nightgown, for example. While searching through a rack of potential PJ's, someone will come over and smilingly ask, "May I help you pick out something in our fine line of

I help you pick out something in our fine line of negligaes?
"No, just looking around," she says. I can't print what I say. I mean, she's there looking for a nightgown, so tell the lady she's there looking for anlightgown and get it over with.

Another thing that drives me note is that she when the same that the same that

"Well, you never know, I mignt get it," see says...

Perhaps the worst part of the while ordeal are.

Perhaps the worst part of the while ordeal are.

Perhaps the worst part of the same that it makes that it make that the same that it makes that it makes that it makes that the same thought of some old make's fancying me in pink chiffen is simply unbearable.

sure to say away from the zone that the state of the same that the world is that the hone of my sale to the world is that the hone same that the same that t sales FRCES. I REUN IN THE CONTROL OF T means "Don't get mind, get even"

To The Carlide Merceny:
Am writing in reply to all the controversy about nursing care in an on take care of yourself, and before any finisher controversy about nursing care in on take care of yourself, and believe to all yourself and before the provider of the provide

Toursday, August 24, 1961
A delegation from Carlisle attended the Eighth Instrict meeting of the Federation of Kentucky Sportsman's League at Ashland, Sunday, Attending were: A. V. Allison, William Straw, Oorsey Watkins, Jim Williams, Earl Hardwick, Bill Parker and Harry Duncan, local conservation officer.

sells 1522 head

Local stock market

Down Memory Lane

neffered a badly cut chin on Monday disease in this section of the country,

"W. Bloghins of this city and supirate a road sign and cut his clin. He was knowight to the boat hepsital where at stillches were taken h close the Raymond Scheffler, soor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schiffler of this country.

Haymond Scheffler of the country.

The local stock market reported the
Raymond Scheffler of the country.

The local stock market reported the
Raymond Scheffler of the country.

The local stock market reported the
Raymond Scheffler of the country.

The local stock market reported the Raymond Scheffler of several stays,

"Insendy with pre-training allows are related to last week's said.

BORN.—Mr. and Mr. Waller Scott.

BORN.—Mr. and Mr. Waller Scott.

BORN — Mr. and Mrs. Waller Scott *See Memory lane, page J

Estobished 1867

Published every Throne (60) 287-244

Published every Throne (60) 287-244

County, Kentock, 4031, Pastage poid of Carisile, Nicholas

County, Kentock, 4031, Pastage poid of Carisile, Nicholas

General Carisile, State (1988)

James C. Senith, Editor

James Duncan, Editor

James Duncan, Austracy-to-the-Publisher

James Duncan, Austracy-to-the-Publis

Nicholas County, one year.....

NATIONAL NEWSPAPER ASSOCIATION

Op-ed page

Dozen Newtons in 20 years? would you believe dozen fig newtons?

Being the smartest one in the family law, psychologists who d tests, hoping they can make if your old report cards and can lick environment of the property of the second to the three levels of the property of the property

By Warren R. Fisher Sr.

By Warren R. Fisher Sr.
August 20, 1930
Back to work after a vacation of two days and mighty slothful withd and sit at my typewriter like a numbskull and smoke and strike not a key.
But fall to looking at a print of the narrows of the Hiwassee River on the back of an old Louisville & Nashville Magazine, very cod and enticing with River and an about on the stream and abloom with the control of the stream and allowing the River and the stream and allowing the root of the stream and allow and the root of the stream and allow and the stream through the meadow by the big spring, And with thoughts of the old meadow and the great soring over which a giant weening willow arrived to spring over which a giant weeping willow arched, of the minnows flashing their silver sides in the branch and the meadow larks and red-wings mesting along its banks, I am straightway lost in day dreams and abominate all forms of endeavor

Being the smartest one in the family in not to head when you have been dischoping they can make one simple groce.

Adm. If your elies don't quide measure regions which the properties of the pr plateau. (1% of 90 to 120 — Second lieutenants, tiling to settle for sess, Lake a RIS want cauchy use same way and, usuring use enough intelligence to know when to garden variety, government our cauchts, earthworms, mothers with the contract of the contr

An editor's random thoughts...

poem, the burden of which mocks at all poets of the springtime, who in winter pipe of the beauties of summer, yet grow strangely quiet in the sultriness of summer's high noon. This is a truth and I think that we all fall into the doldrums from and I think that we all fall into the doldrums from railing about the heat and eating too much and that summer is beautiful, despite the humidity of her "dog days," as if in proof I recall an excursion or a Sunday, when the air was sultry and ready het and day and I remember I thought that only he was a summer of the summe dled on a limb. Poets of springtime, all of these, though silent in the heat of summer's noon. And so a plague on this matter-of-fact rhymster! Poets of the springtime are not dis-illusioned; they but take their siesta.

Selected Group. . . Girl's Rugged Styles. . Men's & Boy's & Ladies' JEANS ₹ OUTERWEAR Stock-up. . . for Back

NOW 1/3 OFF 13 OFF $

NMM PLAID SKIRTS A-Line, Pleated, Half Circle

$8.99 to 12.99$

34 Length Sleeves

Men's, Reg. 6.99. $4.

Boy's, Reg. 5.99. . . $3 My my my my Momman

A must for your back to school wardrobe!

Men's Orion
CREW SOCKS

pkg. of 4.50 6 prs.

ESPECIALLY FOR JUNIORS!

 Junior Denim Jeans in Sizes 3 to · Junior Khaki Pants Poly/Cotton, Sizes 5 to 13 Both Regularly 14.99

Entire Stock Junior & Ladies' COATS & JACKETS Layaway your favorite for the cold weather ahead. . while selections are large WEEK-END ONLY!

•Zip-off Sleeve Jackets Nylon Ski Jackets

· Cordurov Jackets Insulated Vests OFF

> Men's & Boy's Light-Weight

JACKETS Poplins & Nylons 25% OFF

Football Number VELOUR SHIRTS
Solids & Stripes

VALUES $ 15. HAGGAR

Men's Solid Color DRESS SLACKS

Values to 122. $ | 5.

Boy's "Converse SALE

288

TENNIS SHOES

The Carlisle Mercuru

I'M GLAD TO SEE THAT THERE ARE STILL SOME FAIR-MINDED FOLKS WHO WOULDN'T

LET ALL THE NATIONAL ATTENTION AND MEDIA HYDE OF THIS CASE INFLUENCE THEIR VIEWS.

WHERE DID YOU FIND THESE JURORS, ANYWAY?

BRAZILI

FINALLY ROUNDED UP TWENE OBJECTIVE JURORS FOR THE WAYNE
WILLIAMS
TRIAL!?!
TO TAKE ALCOK.

Agree or not

by S.C. Van Curon
It seems a bit contradictory that Gov.
John Y. Brown Jr. continually brags about economy and how his administration is saving money but now his his minions in the process of issuing an additional 1800 millions in hosting it seems like a case of borrowing from Peter to pay Paul.

Brown's bond move is example of robbing Peter to pay Paul

MEMBERS
The Kentucky Press Association
Kentucky Weekly Newspaper and
Western Kentucky Newspaper Associations

whatsoever and particularly my own.

Presently to reading proofs of news columns and fall first upon a fine poem by Service called "The Wanderlust," very fit to bring back dreams of the open road, the fields and hills and peaceful woodlands to one who would, alack! prefer to anywhere else but at the reading of printer's proofs. And I hurry on, but come upon another

Boyd of Locust Street are the parents of a son, Charles Scott Boyd, born Thursday night at Johnson Menorial Hospital, Mrs. Boyd was formerly Miss Mary Stone of Owingsville'.— Mr. and Mrs. Fred Augsburg of Lexington are the parents of a seven and one-fourth the parents of a seven and one-tourth pound son, born Aug. 17 at St. Joseph Hospital. This is the second son in the home. Mrs. J. Cray Martin returned Monday from welcoming her second

Memory lane

randchild.

MARRIED — Miss Frances Sue Col-MARRIED — Miss Frances Sue Col-ius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Collins of Carlisle and Stanley Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Parker of Independence, Ky. on Aug. 9.— Mr. and Mrs. WC. Talbert motored to Barbourville Monday to witness the marriage of their only son, R. L. Talbert, to Miss Eleanor Faultner, at he home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Faulkner at 10 p.m. Tuesday

Thursday, August 25, 1921
The annual meeting of the Nicholas County Sunday School Association was held at the Saltwell Church on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.
The Nicholas County Democrat Com-

★ Come in and Register for FREE 12x12 Vinvl Kitchen Rug.

GRAND OPENING Friday & Saturday Aug. 28 and Aug. 29

Cuts at Low Prices on Selected Carpets!

Free Doormat to Everyone!

Continued from page 2

Commission at Frankfort Saturday the following names, one of whom will be a following names, one of whom will be a followed from the following names, one of whom will be a followed from the following names of the following names

Fraley Carpets