My Greatest Gift

I have felt cool hands upon my feverish brow
A gift I call tenderness
I have seen tears shed for both my happiness and pain
A gift I call caring
I have felt a helpful force in times of need
A gift I call Prayer
I have been pardoned for my wrongs
A gift I call forgiveness
I have been cherished despite my flaws
A gift I call understanding
I have been taught about love
A Gift I call God
I have taken given these blessings by my greatest treasure
A gift I call Mother

My Mother

In Honor of My Mother & Dad's Birthdays (Jan. 4 & Feb. 7)
Christine and Jake Garrett
Also
In Memory of My Two Brothers, Norval (Birthday Jan. 27-Died July 1, 1962)
and Earn Jr. (Birthday May 8—Died Jan. 11, 1972)

Stop and Rest

I heard 2 lonely chairs talking; was down at Moorefield, No. 1, RFD. It seemed to be saying. "Come on Jake & Christine"; "Please sit down, enjoy a rest & talk to me."

You've no time to appreciate, nor hardly even notice anyone or anything around here at all: You catch a little sleep, then say, "Come on Mommy don't want anyone to have to call."

"Have you ever just stopped to fully realize, all of your accomplishments, without you two would be undone; please sit down, and let's enjoy and spend a few minutes together, with just a little thinking, into your past we'll run."

"You've raised eight good and respectable children; I know this makes you both just so proud: Oh yes Mom, "Just a minute, I'll mention each one: so I can watch proud grins upon your faces while on the clouds."

Norval was the first, a tall handsome man; but at 24 we look'ed around in his place his memory stands. It seems this Sunday God says, "I have a very important task, none but the best will do. "Please Norval, you're such an asset to this land, but please come give me a hand, won't you?"

Paul (Fats) was second and just as fine; he's just like a leader, always at the head of the line; He's still working construction with W & W now; very proud he can be, and never will his head in shame bow.

Ann was the third, the oldest girl of all; Oops, just a minute, she's recovering from a hard fall; please, don't worry about her, because she will tell; because of parents' guidance in youth, she's coming up fast and doing well.

Fourth, there was Bessie, now manager of Sears Roebuck; "See", just one more of your kiddies you gave luck"; even tho she's moved to Woodstock, Illinois, still her many thoughts of you all, she'll always enjoy.

Fifth, there was Earn Jr., just still can't understand, when God needed another one of the best young men. "Jr. please come with me to help Norval; as none other will do."; "Oh yes," I have a gold pew for your parents, for respect and guidance taught all of you.

Sixth, there was Sylvia, Sissy as she's known; Always joking with everyone, why all her friends would fill the astrodome; but anytime you feel down and out and think, "I've no friend"; Oh, wait just a minute, here comes "Sis" with that sweet grin.

"Oh yes, Mom, on the day you were 40, tell of the birthday present: Yes, a pretty little boy, George Reynolds, this makes your seventh. Now George is grown and married and well; a chubby lil' fella sitting upon his knee; can see the excitement in his eyes as he yells, "Hurry up, look at Cliffee"

Oh yes last, but certainly not least, another fine handsome man. Leonard Timothy made eight. He's always joking and playing tricks with everyone, but he's so good hearted, he'll give you his shirt before he's done.

Here's all your eight children listed separately; you're still as proud as you can be, collect all of the I.O.U.'s for thanks, and then mark paid; you would never have to work another day.

So just relax and sit down to rest, please; just sit and watch the grass, the birds, the flowers and trees, take any and all of your money, to be spent all on your needs; then we'll take care of you because we're so indebted to Thee.

LAST WEDNESDAY, MRS. DOROTHY JONES EARNED $200 DURING HER LUNCH BREAK.

That's because Mrs. Jones cashed-in on her unwanted, outdated gold jewelry.

Old bracelets, chains, pins, charms, earrings, anklets, rings, etc. — at today's soaring gold prices, it makes good dollars & sense to cash-in. It really pays!

And, Dorothy Jones, like many others, know that when they bring us their unwanted gold jewelry—they'll earn Top Dollar...the Highest Prices paid for their gold. (We'll also give you an extra 20% above today's gold price when you trade-in for our newest gold fashionables!)

So, if you're not busy next week...How about lunch?

ORDINANCE NO. 1— 1981

An Ordinance Setting the Property Ad Valorem Tax for the City of Carlisle at Twenty-Five and Seven Tenths ($0.257) Cents Per One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars Valuation to be used for City Operating Fund Purposes.

WHEREAS, the City of Carlisle wishes to adopt the compensating tax rate which will produce the same revenue as collected in 1980, and

WHEREAS, the City needs to begin collecting property taxes immediately, such state of facts constituting an emergency and necessitating immediate effectiveness of this ordinance, therefore

Be It Ordained by the City of Carlisle as follows:

1. An ad valorem tax of twenty-five and seven tenths ($0.257) cents on each one hundred ($100.00) dollars worth of property is hereby levied on all lands, improvements and personal property, tangible or intangible, held or owned by any person, firm, company, corporation or association in his, hers, theirs or its name, as or fiduciary or agent and subject to taxation under the laws of the state of Kentucky.

2. Where applicable property values used will be those set by the County Property Valuation Administrator, or by such other authority as the City Council may provide.

3. All of such taxes shall be paid to the Clerk or Treasurer of the City of Carlisle.

4. All 1980 Taxes paid by March 2, 1981 will be allowed a Two (2%) Percent Discount. All 1980 Taxes not paid before April 4, 1981 shall be assessed a Six (6%) Percent penalty. In addition, interest at the legal rate shall be assessed on all delinquent taxes.

Passed on First Reading Feb 9, 1981.

Signed by Mayor William Power.

Recorded by Clerk Feb. 10, 1981.

FOR AILING PLANTS

If you want to approach plant problems without using chemical cures, here are some ideas:

Prevention is the best cure for almost any houseplant problems. Look for even the tiniest symptom on your plants regularly — when you water is a good time to examine them carefully.

Look at the soil of a potted plant to check for insects. Usually, bugs crawl around edges of pots and saucers, or on top of the soil before they begin to lay eggs and feed on foliage. Remove them manually as soon as you see them.

If you suspect insects are in the soil of the plant, remove the plant carefully from the pot, shake soil gently from roots and wash roots under lukewarm water. Repot in sterilized soil and a fresh pot. Don't let roots dry out between their rinse and putting them into new soil in a new pot.

If you notice insects on foliage and stems, begin a twice-daily attack on them by spraying warm water on the plant heavily. Sudsy water is even more effective, but use a soak flakes, not a detergent, to make the suds. If several leaves have been weakened and the spray dislodges them, be sure to remove them from the pot.

Once a plant shows signs of severe disease or insect infestation, it's best to discard it. If you can't bear to part with the plant, take a cutting from a healthy area, spray with insecticide and root the cutting in water.

MAGICWORD

HOW TO PLAY: Read the list of words. Look at the puzzle. You'll find these words in all directions — horizontally, vertically, diagonally, backwards. Draw a circle around each letter of a word found in the puzzle then strike it off the list. Circling it will show a letter has been used but will leave it visible should it also form part of another word. Find the big words first. When letters of all listed words are circled, you'll have the given number of letters left over. They'll spell out your MAGICWORD.

Feelin' Good

By M.A. PETH, M.D.

After you cut or handle raw meat, poultry or fish, you should always clean up thoroughly if you want to stay healthy. Wash your sink, countertop, utensils, cutting board, etc., with a chlorine bleach and wash your hands thoroughly.
