If you are looking for something new to serve in the way of a dessert, try a Souffle. They are really not so difficult to make as you might think. It is a dessert you can make ahead of time and forget, but you can get it ready to bake at a point, then add the beaten egg whites at the last and let it cook while you enjoy your dinner. Then serve it with fresh strawberries.

GINGER SOUFFLE
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup all-purpose flour

1 teaspoon vanilla
2 tablespoons finely chopped candied ginger
1 egg white
1/2 cup cream of tartar

A trip to the supermarket or the gas station can be a traumatic experience today. But what if you couldn't count on accurate scales in the meat or deli department or accurate pumps at the station? At today's prices, even a small error could give your pocketbook a thump.

The fact that you can count on honest weight and measurement is a tribute to the little known, but vitally important government agency - the Kentucky Department of Agriculture's Division of Weights and Measures. Tom Egnew, Acting Division Director, and his staff inspect thousands of commercial weighing and measuring devices every year to insure that you get what you pay for.

At the same time, local officials and their colleagues across the country are protecting the interests of merchants, food processors, and others who transact business by weights or measurement.

In addition to supermarkets and gas stations, there are hundreds of other installations to be checked - warehouses, processing plants, truck scales, livestock operations, and on and on. For this reason, the theme for 1981 National Weights and Measures Week is, "Weights and Measures - Equity for All."

National Weights and Measures Week has been observed for the past 25 years during the week of March 7 to focus attention on the work of these

SEWING WITH ORANGE SAUCE:
1/2 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cornstarch
1 cup water
1/2 teaspoon grated orange peel
1/2 teaspoon grated lemon peel
1/4 cup orange juice
1 tablespoon lemon juice
In saucepan combine sugar, cornstarch and salt. Stir in water; bring to a boil. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Cool slightly and stir in remaining ingredients. Serve warm over the Grater Souffle. Makes 1 1/2 cups sauce.

OTHER HINTS: Do not open the oven door while souffle is baking. Souffles may be made ahead of time with the exception of beating the egg whites and adding to the souffle base. That must be done at the last minute just before putting in the oven.

The following recipe was given to me by Alice Marie Feaback. It is simple to make and delicious.

PUMPKIN DESSERT
1 cup water
1 package instant pudding mix, any flavor
Combine ingredients in 2 quart jar. Stir well, then cover and shake contents well. Refrigerate over to two hours. Serve, set prepared topping in serving dish and pour pudding over topping.

Important servants. The dates were selected by weights and measures officials and the Seal of Merchants Association to mark the signing by President John Adams on March 3, 1796, of the nation's first weights and measures law.

Local weights and measures officials try to inspect each installation at least once a year on a random basis. "The element of surprise is important in our work," Egnew said. Inspectors have to be discreet, but they are always willing to cooperate.

Most shortweights are due to carelessness and lack of proper scale care and are not premeditated, officials say. That is why it is important that everyone cooperate, not only with the Weights and Measures Inspector, but with the merchant himself, by calling attention to possible weighing errors.

In the long run, everyone will benefit.

Mrs. Courtney Gum will be a finalist in W.V. 2,7,7,7, Bake Off Saturday, March 14 at the Home and Garden Show in Ripley, Arpan.

Spring is the time to begin shaping this year's lawn

The nice spring-like weather that has been running about the "tender lady" has also caused lawn to begin greening up.

This is a signal to lawn owners to start thinking about what they need to do to ensure a strong, healthy and beautiful lawn on through the summer.

"It is necessary, start seeding as soon as possible to achieve a good stand of grass," said the specialist. Also, it's important to have a good soil-test conducted to assure proper fertilization.

"If it is necessary, use a roller-till to break up the soil," added Powell. The two most common types of lawn grasses used in lawns in Kentucky are bluegrass and tall fescue. Bluegrass may require some tillage of the soil and seedbed preparation to get a good stand established. Fescue need however, can be "sprinkled on top of the ground and raked into the soil," Powell said.

Powell advised using pre-emergence herbicides to kill crabgrass, the major weed problem in Kentucky lawns. Apply chemicals at proper rates in late March or early April.

Broadleaf weeds also are a problem in lawns. "Broadleaves such as dandelion, plantain, clover and chickweed can be controlled by using 3,4-D, mixed in various quantities," said Powell. To get good weed control, he said that broadleaf weed killers should only be applied at temperatures above 60 degrees F.

As soon as your lawn starts growing, go ahead and mow it. "Mow early in the spring to even the lawn and to get rid of dead leaf tips," suggested Powell. He recommended mowing at a height of 2 to 2 1/2 inches.

Talking books?

More than 1,000 blind and dual-handicapped Kentuckians still enjoy the pleasures of "reading" through books that talk to them and tell their own story. These books are sent out by the Kentucky Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, and according to the library director, Adam Hunchual, volunteers are the key to making this valuable service work.
