Outstanding seniors honored at Class Night

At last Friday's Class Night proceedings at Nicholas County High School, several outstanding seniors were honored with awards.
The English Award, given for the highest grade point average in English, "the ability to express oneself in both writing and speech, and the desire for personal enrichment" was presented to Tommy Biddle.
The Typing Award went to Sandy Caswell. It is given to the student who has gained speed and accuracy in typing skills, and who has attained the highest grade point average in Typing.
The Semester Honoring Award is given to the student with the highest grade point, standing in housing and who also "exhibits outstanding ability and creativity in the field of housing."
Sandy Caswell was the recipient of this award.
A Certificate of Participation was presented to Mike Brunker for his two years service as photographer for the yearbook.
The Yearbook Staff Award and Certificate of Participation for being the 1981 Editor of the Nicholas County yearbook staff went to Margaret Dumas.
The Student Library Aide Service Award went to Brenda Tucker for donating her time during three of her years at NCHS in service to the library.
For being the 1980 Co-Editor of the Nicholas Countyman, Patrick Knapp was given a Yearbook Staff Award and Certificate of Participation Award.
The Drama award went to Carletha Anderson "for her outstanding performance and character development" as June Braddock in the spring play The Magic Touch.
The DAR award was presented to Tommy Biddle for his being selected as the "Good Citizen of Nicholas County High School for the current year through his demonstration of his high qualities of dependability, leadership, service and patriotism."
Mr. Biddle also received the Chemistry Award for having maintained the highest scholastic standing in Chemistry.
For her "outstanding work, good attitude, cooperation and outstanding efforts," the General Business Award was presented to Brenda Tucker.
Sandy Caswell and Tommy Biddle shared the honors with their receipt of

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FIFTH DISTRICT
It has been a pleasurable experience for me to have been able to represent my friends for the past 4 years as your Magistrate. I have tried to the best of my ability to be fair and equal to everyone. I feel I have the qualifications and business experience that could be a benefit to the County.
All major decisions made pertaining to the County must be made by the majority of the Fiscal Court.
Please put your confidence in me again and
