Steven Beshear to appear on KET

On Wednesday, May 27, Kentucky viewers will have another opportunity to address their questions to Attorney General Steven Beshear on KET's news and public affairs series, "Kentucky Journal."

Many new issues have arisen since the call-in with Beshear in March and because many viewers were unable to get their questions through the phone banks, KET officials felt that another call-in would be a public service.

Issues expected to be addressed are: odometer roll-backs by used car dealers; the increasing number of stolen vehicles "dumped" in Kentucky; and, Kentucky's "Ten Commandments Law" as well as other issues relating to the Attorney General's decisions.

Viewers may call in questions to the number that will be flashed on the screen the night of the call-in.

The "Kentucky Journal" call-in airs at 8 p.m. (ET), 7 p.m. (CT) on KET and is hosted by Charles Thompson and Jonas Chaney.

Memorial Day Cookout

Memorial Day weekend — hot dogs — franks or what have you. Why do they seem to go together like "ham and eggs?" Maybe it is because it is usually the first family outing. In this day of grills, the picnic will more than likely be in your own back yard, so go ahead and grill your frankfurters. Don't forget the buns, relishes, etc.

I'll give you a good vegetable congealed salad recipe. You can make it the day before. Most men like it and it makes enough to serve 10 or 12. So if friends come by, don't worry, you will have enough.

VEGETABLE SALAD

1 package lemon jello
1½ cups boiling water

Add:

1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon red pepper
3 tablespoons sugar
½ cup vinegar
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Stir until jello is dissolved.

Prepare and add:

1 tablespoon grated onion
½ cup chopped pimento
¼ cup diced celery
1½ cups shredded cabbage
¼ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup grated carrot
1 cup chopped pecans

Pour into large oblong pyrex dish.

****

The meal would not be complete without baked beans. If you want the real thing, try this recipe.

BAKED BEANS

Soak 2 cups dried beans (Navy or Great Northern) overnight. Remember to have water well over the halfway mark on your saucepan. Next morning bring to a boil and simmer slowly about one hour. Drain, saving liquid. Add to beans: ¼ cup chopped onion, about ½ cup brown sugar, ½ cup catsup, 1 teaspoon dry mustard, 1½ teaspoons salt, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Taste this. You may want to add more sugar or a bit of molasses or more catsup. Place in greased baker. Cover the beans with reserved bean water. Put several strips of bacon on top. Put top on baker and cook in slow oven (250 degrees) about six hours. If they become dry, add reserved liquid. Cook uncovered for the last hour.

If all this sounds too much, there are several good canned baked beans. Open and add a bit of brown sugar and catsup to taste, cover with bacon and bake until bacon is crisp.

Now for those who like to experiment and dare to serve something different even in the way of frankfurters, try these ideas.

2 cups chopped franks, ¼ cup grated cheese, 2 hard-boiled eggs (chopped), 3 tablespoons chili sauce, 2 tablespoons pickle relish, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, ¼ teaspoon celery seed. Combine all ingredients. Fill buns with mixture. Wrap each securely in foil. Place on baking sheet and bake at 400 degrees for 15 to 20 minutes.

This makes enough for about eight sandwiches. You can put them on your grill and cook about same length of time turning about three times.

FRANK KABOBS

This you "play by ear." Use needed amount of franks cut in one-inch pieces.

Make a marinade of ½ cup soy sauce, ¼ cup catsup, ¼ cup salad oil, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoon crushed thyme, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard. This should be enough marinade if you are serving six.

Add franks, 16 small canned onions (if you prefer the flavor of raw onion, use small round green onions), 16 pineapple chunks, 2 green peppers cut in one-inch squares to marinade and chill about three hours.

Cut 8 slices of bacon in half and partially cook. When ready to broil wrap bacon pieces around each pineapple chunk.

On 9 or 10-inch skewers alternate the franks, vegetables and bacon wrapped pineapple. Cook about 12 minutes turning and brushing with marinade often.

Let each person cook their own. Remember to put the onion on the skewer by piercing through the side. If you want the servings to be larger, you may add small canned whole potatoes and whole mushrooms. If you get carried away with this whole idea, maybe you had better double the marinade recipe.

BARBECUED FRANKS

You may use your favorite barbecue sauce. Grill franks, brushing often with sauce. Serve on buns.

For the children, please don't forget the marshmallows!
