by Steve Laville and Matt Hughes Nicholas County's FFA corn crop was bought Thursday, Nov. 3 by FFA member Andy Jickel. He bought the corn by the bushel to feed his cattle. Andy picked the corn for FFA and then he bought it. There were 2.2 acres of corn or 120 bushels. The corn brought $2.50 a bushel and the money will go to the FFA Chapter.

Mrs. Kay White's phase English research techniques class will visit the Nicholas County Library throughout this week. The class will ride a bus there to get information for the papers they are writing. The students will have a choice whether to go to the high school or county library. During their research students will have to find ten sources for their papers from books, magazines, newspapers, or pamphlets. The entire paper will take nine weeks to write. This is a class designed for the college bound student.

Mrs. Bonnie Metcalf's gainful child development class went on a field trip to Harrison County Thursday. They visited the Cynthiana Daycare Center

Thank You Thank you voters for electing me City Councilman. I will strive to earn the confidence you have placed in me. Thanks Again, Charles Fay

Thank You I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you good civic minded people for supporting me in the election, and also in the past years. I have tried to serve you well in the past 28 years. I am leaving my successor a city free of debt, with money invested drawing interest. I will continue to support my community the best I can. Thanks again, Bill Power

Thank You A great big "Thank You" to each one of you for your support during the Nov. 3 Election. I not only received your support, but also your encouragement all during the campaign. I will work hard to earn your respect when I take office as your Mayor in January. I also want to extend my Thanks to all the candidates who ran for City Council. All should be commended for their service, interest and concern in making our City a better place to live and work. I am now looking forward to the change-over in 1982, hoping that we can all work together for better growth and understanding in our City. I would also like to invite each of you to the council meetings each month so you may see your City Council at work. Thank you, Charles Fay
